"Papillon."

Last year the autobiography of the man who successfully escaped from Devil's Island was at the top of the best-seller list.

This year the film starring Steve McQueen and Dustin Hoffman is one of the hottest properties in Hollywood history.

Now "Papillon" has made an enormous new move: Jerry Vale's great recording of the film's title track.

4-45992 "Free as the Wind," the theme from "Papillon." It could be the biggest single of Jerry Vale's career.

FRONT COVER:

On Jan. 11, 1974, a musical milestone will be observed. Ten years ago to the day, four irrepressible lads from Liverpool (yes, The Beatles) hit the charts for the first time with "I Want To Hold Your Hand," a song that also began their incredible string of number 1 singles and albums. In fact, at one point in '64, the quartet owned the top five singles and had two others in the top fifty which eventually made their way to the top ten—an unprecedented feat that likely will never be accomplished again.

Reflecting back on the amazing career of the Beatles, it becomes apparent that they revolutionized more than the world's approach to pop music. The hair styles, clothes, and flippant wit which characterized them in their formative days, swept through this country and Western Europe with unparalled suddenness and has now become the trademark of an entire generation. The Beatles galvinized the youth of the world with their music and their lifestyle, and both played crucial roles in the emergence of the 'new morlaity'.

Having taken the group concept as far as they feasibly could, the band split up in 1970 to pursue individual musical interests and it is testimony to their talent and charisma that each of them has had a very successful career on his own. All four have had both gold singles and LP's and as of this writing, John, Paul, and Ringo have albums in the top 25 with George's forthcoming effort (due in Feb.) certain to reach the same plateau. As the world waits for the next phenomenon, it's worthwhile to reflect back and be thankful that time and space brought these special men together to make music that has dominated the past decade.

Liberatore To MGM; Sales VP

HOLLYWOOD — Art Liberatore has been named vp of sales at MGM Records. Liberatore, who reports to Rocco Catena, senior vp of the label, comes to MGM from Phonodisc, Inc., where he served in Cleveland as midwest regional manager. He will be responsible for all MGM product and MGM-marketed labels, and will work closely with the 28 Phonodisc sales offices and six Phonodisc regional distribution facilities.

'73 Recording Wrap Up:

Singer/Composers Again Dominate Cash Box Polls; Crossovers, Comedies, Oldies Come On Strong

NEW YORK — The trend which began a few years back of singer/songwriters dominating the charts was continued in 1973 in the Cash Box Artists tabulation for the year. The gap between singles and LP popularity closed even further with artists appearing on the singles charts who had previously shunned such attempts at pop stardom. Of these groups, Pink Floyd, Yes, Grand Funk, the Moody Blues, Deep Purple, the Allman Brothers and the Electric Light Orchestra were most noteworthy. But it was still the "age of the singer/songwriter" in 1973.

In checking the Cash Box listing of top male vocalists of 1973, nine of the top ten artists wrote, as well as performed, their material with Elton John, Stevie Wonder and the late Jim Croce taking the top three spots. In the female category, six of the top ten are singer/songwriters with stalwarts Carole King, Roberta Flack, Carly Simon, Aretha Franklin and Joni Mitchell all finishing near the top of the list. Perennial favorities, in both male and female categories, finishing in the top listings also included Helen Reddy, Diana Ross, Anne Murray, Cher, Al Green, Elvis Presley. Donny Osmond and Curtis Mayfield in making for a rather well rounded roster of artists again scoring heavily in 1973.

In the group categories, Dawn, Gladys Knight & The Pips, War, Deep Purple, the Moody Blues and the Beatles (yes, the Beatles!) finished in their usual high ranking positions with bright continued futures still promised for all in the established category. In the new group category, many bright hopes for the future appeared in the form of such chart winners as Steely Dan, the Edgar Winter Group, Bloodstone and Stealers Wheel with other new hopes Focus, the Sweet, the Pointer Sisters and Beck, Bogert and Appice also appearing.

Country, R&B Crossover

Crossover proved this year a stronger factor on the charts than ever before with r&b and country moving as never before. Spearheading the country barrage on the pop charts was Charlie Rich, Donna Fargo, Jeanne Pruett, Conway Twitty and Lynn Anderson in creating a totally unexpected trend that most listeners seemed to appreciate judging by chart acceptance. R&B once again was a major factor on the pop charts with Bloodstone, Al Green, Sylvia, Aretha Franklin, Barbara Mason, Jackie Moore, Denise LaSalle, Eddie Kendricks, Billy Paul, Timmy Thomas, Stylistics, Spinners and Brighter Side Of Darkness (among countless others) leading the trend.

Oldies Revival

Oldies continued their revival with everything from bluegrass to acapella experiencing success sometime during the course of 1973. Comeback artists such as Dobie Gray, Sylvia, Perry Como, Seals & Crofts and Jerry Lee Lewis were those major artists reappearing with hits in 1973, but real surprises were in the field of re-issued "oldies" where such hits of yesteryear as "Monster Mash," "She's Not There," "Good Golly Miss Molly," "Snoopy vs The Red Baron" and "Purple People Eater" re-scored heavily. Covers of "oldies" were also prevalent in '73 with such titles as "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy," "Young Love," "A Million To One," "Roll Over Beethoven," "Rhapsody In Blue," "Twisting The Night Away," "Alfie," "Daydream," "In The Mid-

MCA's Rick Frio: Label Exceeded '73 Projections By Wide Margin

UNIVERSAL CITY — In a Cash Box interview, MCA vice president Rick Frio reported that 1973 was MCA's biggest year in terms of gross volume and "astonishingly successful, netwise."

"A couple of months ago, before we knew about the Elton John release and a few other things, we dropped our projection by 2 million dollars. Now it looks as if we'll not only do that 2 million, but exceed our projection by 10. That's 12 million dollars more than we had counted on."

MCA is currently represented on the charts by 5 albums: the Who's Quadrophenia (Track Records), Elton John's "Goodbye Yellow Brick Road," Cher's "Half-Breed" and soundtracks from the films "American Grafitti" and "Sunshine."

"In the past, when for example we had a 'Jesus Christ Superstar' year, in which we brought in 55 million dollars, our expenses ran very, very high. Our distribution was more haphazard, we were pressing in all kinds of different places. Now, with the tight controls we have, the gross figures are still there, but the net figure is increased tremendously." Frio cited a number of measures that have been undertaken by MCA to reduce unnecessary expenditures, control distribution and cut back returns, a factor that becomes more and more crucial as vinyl supplies continue to shrink.

In the past year, MCA Records has trimmed its personnel down to 50 persons in its Universal City headquarters. The New York office maintains a staff of only two key people, and there are only six branch offices, all sales operations. MCA product is now being shipped directly from the plant to the account, preventing the stockpiling of albums in branches and warehouses. In this, the ownership of its own pressing plants, MCA has an

Adler's Ode Label Continues A&M Ties; Ink New 3-Yr Deal

HOLLYWOOD — After months of industry speculation of many multimillion dollar deal offers, Ode Record president and founder Lou Adler has opted to remain entirely independent and will continue his distribution ties with A & M Records via a new three-year agreement.

In so doing, Adler—one of the most successful and creative forces in the recording industry—said he deliberately made a decision that reverses a recent industry trend he helped establish: that is, where a major company or conglomerate acquires a small, hot label with a stock and/or cash offer. As one of the co-founders of Dunhill Records, Adler was later to sell that hot, small label to ABC Records.

Adler's Philosophy

"Having total autonomy and being able to personally control every aspect of the Ode operation is the main reason I didn't want to sell the company," Adler revealed. "For no matter how many promises of total autonomy, and no matter how many codicles are written into a contract, one loses certain degrees of freedom and independence to act when one is acquired," he emphasized. "Sometimes this loss is subtle, sometimes it isn't, but after 15 years of producing and directing talent, I know that any degree of loss is to be avoided at all costs."

Adler also said he never seriously considered any other distribution association than one with A & M. "I feel comfortable and at home at A & M," he stated. "We respect each other and the way we operate our compan-

EMI Cites Int'l Economic Crisis In MIDEM Bow Out

LONDON — EMI Records stated that it would not send any reps to MIDEM this year. The company said it could "not justify the heavy expenditure of foreign currency at this time in view of the current international economic situation." The eighth MIDEM meet is being held this month in Cannes, France.

England itself, of course, is in the midst of an energy crisis. Some music firms have already decided to close down their offices for the entire Christmas-New Years holidays.

Epic: 'New Voices Of '74' Promo

NEW YORK — Epic Records has set a new promo mailing campaign under the title "New Voices of '74." Three new Epic releases were selected for the initial Jan. package, which was mailed to the label's promo field on Dec. 14, including Florence Warner, Michael Fennelly, and John Hiatt. The "New Voices of '74" kits, designed for the use of promo men and salesmen as tools, include test pressings, photographs, and biographical information.

"This is a really novel and exciting way to introduce new artists to our field force and to the industry in general," Charles Lourie, director of merchandising, said. "It presents an opportunity to do things for artists in small groups which ordinarily wouldn't make sense on an individual basis." The new mailing concept, which will be executed in conjunction with consumer print advertising and multiple radio commercials, will also be graphically innovative, with graphics appearing not only on the cover of the kits, but carried through to the components within the box as well.

The "New Voices of '74" campaign also includes plans for a special mailing by Steve Slutzah, national FM promo director for Epic Records, to key radio personnel. Epic, which plans to continue this mailing campaign throughout the year, has already layed the groundwork for a Jan. mailing.

MGM To Market Its Own Tapes

HOLLYWOOD — MGM Records has announced that its affiliation with GRT Tapes will terminate on Dec. 31. Effective thereafter, MGM will market its own 8-track and cassette tapes through the 28 Phonodisc sales offices and the six Phonodisc regional distribution facilities.

The initial tapes, available in mid-January, are four new country releases: "She's Got Everything I Need" by Eddy Arnold, "Just Jeannie" by Jeannie C. Riley, "Too Many Memories" by Billy Walker and "Let's Go All The Way Tonight" by Mel Tillis and Sherry Bryce. Plans are under way to gradually introduce the balance of the MGM catalog during the following months.

Music World Expo To Focus On Consumer Education: Nader

NEW YORK — Richard Nader's Music World Expo '74, the exposition for the consumer, slated for March 1-3 at Madison Square Garden, "will lean heavily towards acquainting the public with various behind-the-scenes procedures involved in bringing music to the consumer," Nader, producer and originator of the event, stated.

Exhibitors will give the consumer an opportunity to see just how music is made, elaborating visually and mechanically on 'the music goes 'round and round and it comes out here' theme.

There will be a glass-enclosed recording studio, designed by Rick Lazes, production manager for the Richard Nader Organization, which is being built especially for the Expo, and constructed so that it can travel with future Expos to other cities.

Expo '74 will also feature "the world's largest speaker," a room which will accommodate 20 people, and function as a speaker. The speaker-room will be used to "tell" the story of quad in sound, as well as to inform the audience on the proper care an operations of sound systems, etc.

A minature pressing plant will be in operation during the Expo, showing the consumer how records are made, following the step-by-step process from voice to recording tape to master to finished product. This exhibit will be backed up by a film on how records are manufactured.

"Manufacturers and retailers of musical instruments will have available all types of musical instruments that the consumer can try out on the spot," Nader said. "Often, the music audience's familiarity with instruments is limited to a viewing from a seat at a concert, and few non-musicians get to "experience" any instruments at all. Even amateurs and hobbyists often have no knowledge of instruments other than the one which they themselves play. At Expo, the consumer will be able to discover exactly which instruments make the sounds they hear, and how the sounds are made by the instruments."

Exhibitors

The Expo, which is open to exhibitors from all areas of the music industry, will have representation by manufacturers of records and tapes; manufacturers and distributors of audio component systems and accessories, video cassette and video recording equipment; musical instrument manufacturers, as well as music-related and trade publications, and associations and professional organizations of the music industry.

At Madison Square Garden, the Rotunda, offering 22,000 square feet of exhibit space, the 4400-seat Felt Forum, and the 470-seat Cinema—all under one roof—will be available for exhibitors' use during the three-day event.

Interested potential exhibitors are invited to contact the Richard Nader Organization Inc. 225 East 57 St., NYC 10022 (212-688-2250) for further information.

Bobby Darin Succumbs At 37

HOLLYWOOD — Bobby Darin, who became a teen idol in the 50's and 60's after his song "Splish Splash" became a number one hit in 1958, died Dec. 20 in the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, the victim of heart ailments which had plagued him throughout much of his life. Darin had undergone open-heart surgery for the second time since 1971 to correct malfunctioning of two artificial heart valves, but a spokesman for the four-surgeon team who spent six hours trying to repair the damage said, "He was just too weak to recover."

Darin, born Walden Robert Cassoto, fought his way out of the Bronx streets to become a millionaire by the age of 24, having starred in the nation's major nightclubs and made appearances in movies which earned him in excess of $2-million. Sandra Dee, his first leading lady, became his wife shortly after completion of his film debut in "Come September" in 1960 and the couple had a son, Dodd, who was born in 1962.

Among the entertainer's many achievements were four gold records, two Grammys, and an Oscar nomination for his role in the film "Captain Newman, M.D." He once remarked that Frank Sinatra had also won two Grammys and he stated, "I hope to pass Frank in everything he's done."

Music became his life in 1958 when a song he had written in twelve minutes, "Splish Splash," sold 100,000 copies in just three weeks. It bore the name Bobby Darin, which he claimed to have gotten out of the phone book. In the nineteen-sixties, Darin's career surged to new heights beginning in 1960 with his recording of "Mack the Knife," in which he used his amazing range of talent in a parody of Louis Armstrong's style that earned the record number one status for the year, 2-million copies sold, and Grammys for best song and best new artist of the year. More important, the record helped Darin make the transition from teen idol to adult star. His other major hit records were "Early In The Morning" and "Dream Lover".

In the sixties Darin played the major Las Vegas nightclubs on a regular basis and became one of that city's biggest box office draws. The success led him into a number of television appearances, including several Bobby Darin TV specials, and a new recording contract with Motown Records. He topped the string of triumphs by attaining his dream of having his own TV show and had designs on making more personal statements in his writing efforts, to be used in 'concept' albums, but these never materialized in the form of commercial releases. In fact, he often carried a cassette recorder with him to tape spontaneous ideas.

Darin and Ms. Dee were divorced in 1966 and he married legal secretary Andrea Joy Yeager in June, 1972. They had been separated for several months at his death. The entertainer directed that his body be donated for medical research to the University of California stating that it would help save the lives of others.

1st La. Arrest Re: Anti-Piracy

SHREVEPORT — Police here have made the first arrest under Louisiana's anti-piracy statute which came into effect last Jan. 1.

Jack Fowler, operator of City Stereo and Appliance Company here, was charged with the sale of pirated 8-track tapes following an investigation by local police who were assisted by the Recording Industry Association of America.

Fowler was released on a bond of $750 pending a hearing.

Court Restrains Firm In Mass.

BOSTON — A temporary restraining order was issued by the Superior Court of Massachusetts against Wildlife Enterprises, Inc., and the Stop & Shop Companies, Inc., doing business as Bradlee's, a chain of retail stores located throughout New England. A hearing on a preliminary injunction is scheduled for Dec. 26.

The action was taken in a suit brought against the defendants by Warner Bros. Records, Inc., charging Wildlife with distributing pirated tapes and Bradlee's with retailing them. The suit, alleging that the sale of pirated tapes were acts of unfair competition, asked for an injunction, damages and the payment by the defendants of court costs and attorneys' fees.

Guilty Plea In Pirate Case

TUCSON — Melba and Donald Garrett of Fresno, Calif., pleaded guilty in Magistrates Court here to three counts each of violating Arizona's anti-piracy law.

Magistrate Charles Whitehill fined the couple $100 apiece on each of the three counts and ordered that 8,000 pirated tapes be confiscated.

Firm Charged In Pirate Sales

ST. LOUIS — A Circuit Court has issued a temporary restraining order against Tacony Distributors, doing business as Western Distributors, in an unfair competition suit brought by Phonogram, Inc., MCA Records, Inc., and Atlantic Recording Corp., charging the firm with selling pirated tapes.

A hearing on whether to grant a preliminary injunction has been scheduled for Jan. 17.

LUNCH IN 2001—A luncheon was held recently celebrating the signing of Deodato to a long-term recording contract with MCA Records. Deodato's smash hit "2001" was followed by his chart single "Rhapsody In Blue" which were both done for CTI Records. Pictured (l. to r.) are: Rick Frio, vice president marketing, Mike Maitland, president, Deodato, Artie Mogull, vice president artist acquisition and development and Bud Prager, Deodato's personal manager.

BMI/All Industry Contract Is Sent To Radio Stations

NEW YORK — The new contract covering the use of the BMI (Broadcast Music, Inc.) repertory for the next four years, which was arrived at by BMI and the All-Industry Radio Music License Committee, has been sent to all qualified radio stations. In addition, the Committee has sent a letter to its subscribers recommending acceptance of the new contract. However, those stations which have failed to file statements of license fees will not receive tenders of agreement.

In letters sent to those stations, BMI president Ed Cramer points out that "failure to file the report constitutes a serious breach of the present agreement. BMI, therefore, will not tender the new agreement to you unless we receive the required reports on or before December 31, 1973."

All efforts have been made to secure these reports, the BMI president states. "Not only were numerous letters sent you but our regional managers communicated with your station personally on a number of occasions," he said.

Stations who fail to send the reports will not have a license agreement to perform BMI music on or after January 1, 1974. The letter notifies them that "the performance of BMI's copyrighted music after January 1, 1974 constitutes infringements under the United States Copyright Law and subjects you to liability for such performances."

MCA Int'l Drive Initiated On Company's British Acts

UNIVERSAL CITY — MCA Records president Mike Maitland has initiated a major international campaign on the company's British acts following meetings here with [illegible] Robinson, newly appointed [illegible] manager for MCA Records London. Robinson, who was formerly [illegible] manager, came to the company's U.S. headquarters to discuss the development of such British artists as Tony Christie, the Average White Band, Stackridge, and Budgie.

Maitland said that Christie, who received a gold record for "Amarillo" and is one of MCA's biggest international sellers, will be recording for the first time in the U.S. next year. Snuff Garrett, who has had success with such artists as Sonny and Cher and Vicky Lawrence, will produce.

MCA is currently undertaking an aggressive campaign to break its Scottish soul group, the Average White Band, who closed their first U.S. tour at the Whisky in L.A. last week, after three weeks on tour with B. B. King.

English band Stackridge, whose new album, released in Britain,' is "The Man in the Bowler Hat," produced by George Martin, will be making their first tour of the U.S. in the spring to coincide with the album's U.S. release.

Maitland and Robinson also discussed European promotional plans for Blue Mink, whose worldwide recording agreement with MCA takes effect in April.

Said Maitland, "With our present success in the U.S. with Wishbone Ash and Olivia Newton-John, and the continued phenomenal success of Elton John and the Who, British talent is becoming more significant than ever for MCA.

"We are looking forward to even greater success for our British acts, in both the U.S. and other international markets, during 1974."

WEA N. J. Shift; N. Y. Office; Rossi, Willard To Posts

HOLLYWOOD — The Warner/Elektra/Atlantic Corp. has opened a new branch office in New York City, located at 75 Rockefeller Plaza. Named by WEA president Joel Friedman to manage the new branch is George Rossi, who joined the firm 2½ years ago as regional sales manager of the Philadelphia branch. Previously Rossi was branch manager for ABC Record & Tape, and spent eight years with David Rosen, in Philadelphia.

WEA's new Rockefeller Plaza office will house a complete staff of sales and promotion personnel, order service people, promotional mail facilities, advertising, and credit controls. At the same time the company is moving its warehouse facilities to Cherry Hill, N.J.

As for the latter move, Friedman discounted the distance of Cherry Hill from the New York area as having any effect on operations. "It's still only an hour-and-a-half on the road," he said.

Another WEA appointment last week involved Rick Willard, who joins the company from Atlantic Records to become WEA's eastern regional marketing director. He will report to Henry Droz, vice president and national sales director.

Willard will service WEA's branch and customer needs in the Atlanta, Washington, Philadelphia, New York and Boston marketing areas.

Bernard Korman Named ASCAP's General Counsel

NEW YORK — Bernard Korman is the new ASCAP counsel, replacing Herman Finkelstein, who will retire Jan. 1. ASCAP president Stanely Adams has announced. Finkelstein, who celebrated his 70th birthday on Jan. 9th of this year, will continue to serve the society as special counsel. He has ASCAP's General Counsel since 1943.

Korman, 47, a graduate of Columbia College and the Yale Law School, has been ASCAP's assistant general counsel and a member of the ASCAP legal staff since 1951. He has served several terms as a member of the Committee on Copyright and Literary Property of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, and has been chairman of committees of the American Bar Association. Korman is secretary and a past trustee of the Copyright Society of the U.S.A.

Finkelstein was honored at a dinner last week (19) at the Regency Hotel in New York.

Mike Stewart Israel Bonds Tribute Set

HOLLYWOOD — Jerusalem-Ephraim Katzir, president of the State of Israel, has chosen to honor Mike Stewart, president of United Artist Records, at the first annual international tribute dinner of the performing arts on behalf of Israel Bonds.

Stewart will receive Israel's Presidential Standard at the dinner, Feb. 21, at the Century Plaza Hotel, L.A.

Katzir made the announcement following Stewart's recent visit to Israel as a member of the Israel Bond fact-finding mission, which toured the Syrian and Suez battlefronts. While there Stewart met with Katzir, foreign minister Abba Eban and other top governmental and military leaders.

David Picker, president of Two Roads Productions, Inc., has accepted chairmanship of the dinner, and Arthur Krim, chairman of the board of United Artists Corp., and Robert Benjamin, co-chairman of the board, will be co-chairmen of the event. Michael Lipton, senior vice president of United Artist Records, will serve as coordinator.

"Joining us in our effort here will be our affiliate companies as well as the major enterprises in the entertainment industry throughout North America," Lipton said.

"All of us recognize the inestimable contributions that Michael Stewart has made in terms of leadership, inspiration and concrete financial help to the upbuilding of the State of Israel," Picker declared.

"I know that all friends of Israel will welcome the opportunity to make this function a truly meaningful and dramatic demonstration of public appreciation to Michael Stewart through their support of the cause to which his great efforts have been dedicated."

Reilly To RCA Regional Post

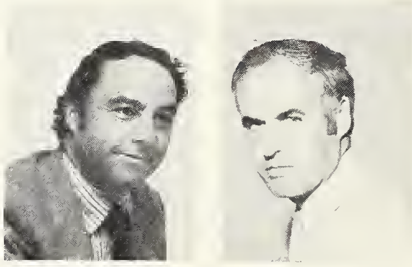
NEW YORK—William Reilly has been appointed manager of sales for the Baltimore-Washington area by RCA Records, reports Frank O'Donnell, manager of sales, northeastern region, to whom Reilly will report.

Reilly joined RCA Records early in 1973 as a commercial field sales rep in the same area he now manages. For the previous year, he had been associated with Morse Electro Products, and for eight years before that was a member of the sales staff of Capitol Records.

Col Promotes Roberts, Van Gessell

NEW YORK — Irwin Segelstein, president of CBS Records, has announced that Cal Roberts has been promoted to vice president of operations marketing with responsibility for the company's custom pressing services for outside labels, marketing and sales of blank tapes manufactured by Columbia Magnetics, and Columbia's studio operations and rentals. Segelstein also announced the promotion of Thomas Van Gessel to assume Roberts' former position of vice president of Columbia Record Productions. Van Gessel was previously director of CRP. Both promotions are effective immediately.

Roberts joined CBS Records in 1954 as a salesman for Columbia Record Productions. Since then, he has been promoted to national sales manager in 1958; director in 1959; and vice president in 1964 of CRP. In that time, he has been primarily responsible for the growth of CRP. Before coming to CBS, Roberts worked for several independent radio stations in the South and also for the Voice of America. In addition to his activities for CRP, Roberts took on the responsibilities of directing Columbia Magnetics and Studio Operations two years ago. Mr. Roberts will report directly to Al Earl, Vice President, Manufacturing Operations.



Roberts Van Gessel

Van Gessel came to CBS as a salesman at the Detroit branch in 1960 and, in 1963 became account exec for Columbia Record Productions. Two years later, he was promoted to midwest regional sales manager and, in 1970, director of CRP. Before coming to CBS, Van Gessel worked as a salesman for Capitol Records. In his new position as vice president of CRP, Van Gessel will be responsible for directing the sales and servicing of Columbia's manufacturing and recording services to other record companies and the U.S. Government. He will report directly to Roberts.

Cossie Named RCA Promotion Chief

NEW YORK — Tom Cossie has been named director of promotion at RCA Records, according to Ken Glancy, president. Cossie replaces Frank Mancini, who was recently appointed vice president of artist relations.

In announcing the promotion, Glancy said: "In the four years that Tom Cossie has been with RCA Records, he has continually demonstrated the qualities of leadership and ability which make his appointment to the position a natural one."

Cossie will direct a department of 35 promo men including five regional managers, the national singles promo manager, national album promo manager, national R&B promo manager, and the national country promo manager.

Before assuming his new position, Cossie was RCA's national album promo manager, a post he held since April of 1971. Previous to that he was a field promo rep for RCA covering the Pennsylvania and Ohio markets. He previously did promotion for Ark Jay Kay distributors in Pittsburgh.

Cossie attended California State College, where he majored in psychology.

While in college he managed three record stores, ran an 'oldies' department for Fenway Distributors, and taught classes in special education for retarded children.

Tillinghast, Young Named To Cap Legal Posts

HOLLYWOOD — Bhaskar Menon, chairman, president and chief executive officer of Capitol Records, Inc., announced that Charles Tillinghast, assistant general counsel and head of business affairs, will assume additional duties as director of the legal department, effective immediately. In his new capacity, he will assume responsibility for all Capitol Industries law department activities, including the artist contract section, which he has supervised since Sept., 1969.

Tillinghast will report directly to Robert E. Carp, CI vice president and general counsel. In mid-Jan. Tillinghast will transfer direction of business affairs to Robert L. Young who is joining Capitol Records as corporate vice president, business affairs. Young will report to Brown Meggs, CRI exec vice president.

Young comes to Capitol from his position of general counsel and director of business affairs for Famous Music Corp, the record and music publishing company of Gulf & Western Industries, Inc. He previously served in various legal capacities with MGM Records, Decca Records, and in private practice.

Jack Levenson Jet Retailer, Dead At 78

BOSTON—Jack Levenson, 78, perhaps better known to his friends and colleagues as "Smilin' Jack," who owned and operated the College Music Shop on Mass. Avenue in Boston for 25 years, died on Dec. 14 at Cardinal Cushing Hospital in Brockton, Mass.

Levenson was born in Russia and devoted most of his life to the record and entertainment world. He began a career in vaudeville, stage and radio as a comedian and singer and later in the 1920s and 1930s promoted songs for different publishing firms, including Shapiro & Bernstein. He was a member of ASCAP.

In 1940, Levenson operated Smilin' Jack's College Music Shop and quickly earned a reputation for obtaining valuable out-of-print vintage recordings.

The College Music Distributing Shop was added in the late 1940s and established Smilin' Jack as one of the first distributors in the country to deal with rhythm & blues, jazz and soul music.

Levenson was lastly associated with Skippy White's Mass. Record Dist. Co.

night [illegible] pop artists. [illegible] about a few [illegible] records, the [illegible] which were "[illegible] the Carpenters, [illegible] Rock And Roll [illegible] West. The trend of re-[illegible] records and covering them in a more contemporary nature will seemingly continue well into the coming musical year of 1974.

Soundtracks, Casters Strong Again

Soundtracks and Original Cast albums again had a fine showing in 1973, as in past years, with such new releases as "Live And Let Die," "Slaughter's Big Rip Off," "Paper Moon," Let The Good Times Roll," "Shaft In Africa," "Jimi Hendrix," "O Luck Man," "Superfly TNT," "Jesus Christ, Superstar," "Tom Sawyer," "Godspell," "Black Caeser," "Steelyard Blues," "Last Tango In Paris," "Lost Horizon" and "Across 110th Street" dominating the film end, and "Seesaw," "Lemmings," "Irene," "A Little Night Music," "Sondheim, A Musical Tribute," "Lorelei" and "Oh Coward" representing original cast productions. Again, 1974 promises to continue the fine tradition of both film and Original Cast recordings in fine style.

Greatest Hits Are Hits

As in the past, "greatest hits" collections flourished in 1973. A few collections were dedicated to performers posthumously with those including Janis Joplin and Jim Morrison and Jimi Hendrix. Other packages of this nature that reached chart prominence included greatest hits collections by Bread, Creedence Clearwater, Spirit, Rod Stewart, Joan Baez, the Beatles (in two 2 record sets), Mountain, Chuck Berry, B. B. King, the James Gang, and Neil Diamond. As the saying goes, as long as there are hits, there will be "Greatest Hits." 1974 looks to be no exception to that rule.

T.V. Comes On Strong

Television, with the incorporation of such shows as "In Concert," "Midnight Special," "Don Kirshner's Rock Concert," "Flipside" and "In Session" brought about increases in record merchandising on the tube. Aside from those packages advertised in the early morning hours, special TV records included a second "Sesame Street" LP, an album by Tony Randall and Jack Klugman entitled "The Odd Couple Sings" and "Multiplication Rock." Each gave a solid indication that such recordings would be continued in the future due to consumer acceptance.

'Live' Recordings Hit Again

In continuing a phenomena begun in the late sixties, the "live" in concert recording re-appeared in 1973 with added vigor. Artists recorded, and released, in live performances, included Ten Years After, Leon Russell, Isaac Hayes, Melanie, Uriah Heep, Miles Davis, Deep Purple, the Jefferson Airplane, Bill Withers, Lee Michaels, 3 Dog Night, the Isley Brothers, Elvis Presley, Dion & The Belmonts and Derek and The Dominoes, along with a year ending package of Rod Stewart and the Faces "live" in concert. Consumers, again, showed that these packages are desireable due to their continued buyer response.

Laughing Louder Than Ever

Although 1973 could not be termed a funny year, comedy LP's were stronger than ever. Chech & Chong, George Carlin, David Frye, Don Imus, the Watergate Seven, Carl Reiner and Mel Brooks and Robert Klein, along with Burns & Schreiber entered the comedy sweepstakes with great success. It seemed that the public "needed" something to laugh at, even if it was themselves in 1973. 1974 promises a good deal more albums of this nature with new comedians Klein, Franklin Ajaye and even a return by Mort Sahl as being a part of the continuous flow of good comedy. As long as people are laughing there will be those others around to keep those smiles going. It seems that comedians nowadays are funnier than ever.

Instrumentals Score Points

Instrumental hits were given a second wind in 1973 with countless groups bursting through onto the charts with strong instrumental works. Aside from the usual, heavy flow of fine jazz, pop instrumentals were strong with such powerhouses as "Dueling Banjos," "Rhapsody In Blue," "Bongo Rock" and "Love's Theme" being the most successful. Involvement, musically, of the majority of the instrumental hits of the year was considerably deeper than in past years, especially on "Frankenstein" and "Hocus Pocus." The incorporation of the classical theme, as seen on "Also Sprach Zarathustra" showed a marked sophistication by musicians and another bright note for the future of instrumental works.

Cover Fights

Cover fights on songs again reared its head in 1973 with such memorable "battles" as "Soul Makossa," "Shambala" and "My Maria" being the most noteworthy. A minimum of ten different artists recorded, and released, covers of "Soul Makossa" before Manu Dibango and Afrique won the race in a rather extended test of song endurance. "Shambala," as covered by 3 Dog Night and B. W. Stevenson, both landed on the charts, but 3 Dog took their version to the very top before that fight was over. Silver Bird, Candy Apple and Kenny Karen covered "That's Why You Remember," a midwestern soft drink commercial, with each version receiving station and eventual chart activity. The cover fights proved that there is always room for opinion on how a tune should be recorded and that an audience out there to listen to each and every version existed and was given the chance to choose their own favorite. Such competition is always exciting and makes for an interesting "argument" to which there can be no real settlement.

Summary

In summing up 1973, it's difficult to state exactly what groundwork was paved for 1974, only that most folks, both recording industry people and consumers seemed content to stick with the norm created in th past couple of years. Naturally, 1974 will be an interesting musical campaign, a new years anticipation always is. 1974 is ready to appear and with it any new, exciting trend that might very well appear. But whatever the musical taste, or whatever hopes one may leave, it seems fairly obvious at this point that anything can, and probably will, happen. It's always better that way and lends itself to the mystery we all have grown to accept and, most importantly, appreciate. Here's to the new year and the surprises it will bring us all.

Belkin-Maduri Produce Minnelli

HOLLYWOOD—Under a deal with Columbia Records, Belkin - Maduri Productions have been set to produce Liza Minnelli for the label. Initial single, produced by Carl Maduri, "More Than I Like You," has just been recorded in L.A. and N.Y. and was rush-released Dec. 24.

Belkin-Maduri recently earned a gold record for their production of Maureen McGovern's "The Morning After" for 20th Century Records.

Diamond Mason Ink Pub. Deal

NEW YORK — President of Silver Blue/Oceans Blue Music, Joel Diamond, and Barry Mason of Barry Mason Music, signed a publishing agreement whereby Diamond's firm will be representing both Mason Music Inc. in the U.S., along with various new Barry Mason and Les Reed tunes from their English "Ram Catalog."

Barry Mason and Les Reed have co-written songs which have sold millions of records around the world mainly by Tom Jones and Engelbert Humperdinck, of which some are: "A Man Without Love," "Les Bicycletts De Belsize," "The Last Waltz," "Delilah," "Winter World Of Love," and "Love Grows Where My Rosemary Goes" written by Barry Mason and Tony MacCauley.

Diamond stated that aside from the tunes already written by Mason and Reed, they have written new songs which have already been heard by several U.S. producers, and are receiving positive reaction from their major artists. Pictured below are Joel Diamond (l.) and Barry Mason.

Leisure Time To Promo GRC Prod

ATLANTA — President of General Recording Corp. (GRC), Michael Thevis announced the firm has completed a deal with Leisure Time Marketing, Inc., a southeastern based firm, to handle the promotion, advertising and merchandising of LP's, tapes and singles for several of GRC's recording artists.

Leisure Time Marketing, Inc. (LTM), headed by president Tom Beckwith and vice-president Tom Ellison, will begin a total marketing campaign for GRC's Red, White & Blue(grass) group and for singer/songwriter Sammy Johns.

According to Beckwith, the firm has already begun contacting retail outlets, one-stops and rack-jobbers in supplying various merchanding aides, co-ordinating advertising buys for album product on the GRC label including "Red, White & Blue(grass)" and "Sammy Johns." Other GRC product involved in LTM's marketing format include the singles "July, You're A Woman" by RW&B(g), "The Lovin's Over" recorded by Ginger Boatwright, member of RW& B(g), and "America" by Sammy Johns.

G.S.F. Sets Winter Lineup

NEW YORK—National promotion director for the G.S.F. Records family, Al Silver, announced the label's winter lineup. The new releases include "You Can't Be In Two Places at the Same Time" by Chuck Brooks and "I Believe In You" by Billy Lee Cunningham. Also planned is an increased promo effort on "Thanks Dad, Part II by Joe Quarterman and Free Soul and "Cry Like a Baby" by Dorothy Moore.

Initially, side one of the Quarterman single was released to r&b stations, but "Part II", an instrumental, began garnering more response from FM outlets, r&b AM stations, and distributors. An album by Quarterman is in the works for 1974 including the eight minute version of "Thanks Dad".

Rosenzweig Auditor At Polygram

NEW YORK—Steve Rosenzweig has joined Polygram Corporation's audit staff, according to Frank A. Barbera, director of internal audit, for the corporation.

Mr. Rosenzweig comes to Polygram from a position as field analyst for the Hertz Corp., where he had been employed since Oct. 1972.

Earlier he had served as staff accountant with Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., CPA's of New York City, and junior accountant with Joseph S. Herbert & Co., CPA's, also New York.

He was graduated from Baruch College of The City College of New York, with a B.B.A. degree in accounting in June 1970.

Kenton Joins Col/Epic PR

NEW YORK — Bob Altshuler, vice president of press and information services at the CBS/Records Group, has announced the appointment of Gary Kenton as publicity staff writer.

Kenton will be responsible for a variety of Columbia, Epic and Columbia Custom Labels writing assignments, as well as assisting in the development of publicity for the label's artists. He will report directly to Ron Oberman, director of press and information services for Columbia, Epic and Columbia Custom labels.

Before coming to Columbia, Kenton was a co-editor for Creem Magazine and, before that, spent over four years as Review Editor of Fusion Magazine. He has written extensively for rock press, with articles appearing in Stereo Review, Phonograph Record Magazine, Oui, Boston After Dark, Ajax and Zoo World, in addition to Creem and Fusion. Kenton was also involved in the formation of the first rock writers guild, Rock Writers of the World.

Helen Reddy

MUSIC CENTER, L.A. — America's very own Australian Helen Reddy brought her own inimitable act to the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion recently. She was introduced warmly by self-confessed friend and fan, Flip Wilson. Helen hosted Flip's summer replacement TV show. After her introduction she proceeded to dazzle her audience and demonstrate that she was every bit as good on stage as she was on television and on her four smash albums. Her witty repartee, cool professionalism, and highly polished performance proved that she is indeed one of the most accomplished singers around today. Helen has probably sold as many records as McDonald's has sold hamburgers. She delighted her votaries with a taste of each of her hits, including a sensitive rendition of "I Don't Know How To Love Him," as well as her liberation libretto "I Am Woman." Other highlight numbers were "Delta Dawn," "Long Hard Climb," and her exciting encore of "Don't Mess With a Woman." Her beatific audience never wanted Capitol's Helen Reddy redress to "leave them alone."

Preceding Ms. Reddy was Danny O'Keefe, who got off to a late start but then breezed through his varied repertoire, including songs from his "Breezy" Atlantic LP. r.b.

Hawkwind

ACADEMY OF MUSIC, NYC — On their first tour of the states, the British rock group Hawkwind stopped here to give New Yorkers a chance to see their Space Ritual show. A show it was. A highly interesting lecture and film presentation by the Hayden Planetarium was prepared to tie in with Hawkwind's appearance and I for one thoroughly enjoyed it. Unfortunately, quite a few people in the audience found this too taxing for their small brains so they elected to scream throughout with cries for Hawkwind. I suppose that asking for a mature audience in New York City is too much to ask for! Eventually Hawkwind did appear and presented a very visual show indeed. Firstly, their amplifiers are quite stunning and certainly out of the ordinary. The group brought a light show with them that was expertly presented with their music. Unfortunately they could have used more stage lighting, we would have liked to see the band members. Hawkwind also travels with Stacia, their dancer who apparently has something to do with the music. The band featured music from their just released "Space Ritual" double album on United Artists as well as its predecessor, "Doremi Fasol Latido". p.s.

Rod McKuen

SANTA MONICA CIVIC, L.A.—In kicking off his latest tour, Rod McKuen presented an extravagant evening of songs, poems and musical arrangements. The songwriter-poet's repertoire is vast and very varied, representing more than a decade's work by one of the most prolific writers on both the musical and literary scenes.

Although, by his own admission, McKuen is not the most mellifluous of singers, his delivery is effective, accentuating the emotional quality of his material and capable of achieving a powerful impact on his audience. Dressed casually in jeans and his trademark sneakers, McKuen displayed what appeared to be nonchalance in regard to showmanship. His act, though, is hardly organized in a casual manner, as it features smooth and intricate orchestral arrangements under the skilled direction of Gene Columbo and conducted by veteran Billy Byers. Also present on stage were the Rodettes—Walter Stratton, Gary Crabbe and Ira Hawkins—a trio of singer-dancers who were equally impressive both as accompanists for McKuen as featured performers.

The concert covered such material as "Happy Are the Hands" and "Love's Been Good to Me," McKuen originals, as well as songs by other writers. A version of Bob Dylan's "I Shall Be Released" was especially effective in McKuen's sensitive arrangement. e.s.

Sneaky Pete and
Lone Star

TROUBADOR L.A. — With a quiet wit and a relaxed living-room style, Jimmy Buffet managed to win a number of new fans during his unscheduled engagement here. His songs ranged from folksy talking blues to soft ballads interspersed with jokes, anecdotes and a steady stream of stage chatter. Accompanying himself on acoustic guitar, Buffet shared the stage with guitarist and fellow songwriter Steve Goodman, whose fine country guitar licks contributed immensely to the success of the performance. Among the material that the duo performed were some cuts from a forthcoming ABC/Dunhill LP titled "Living and Dying in 3/4 Time."

The big surprise of the evening was the appearance of a little known Utah band calling themselves Natty Bumpo. They tried almost everything during the course of their set, from comedy routines to bebopping tunes with Pointer Sisters harmonies. There were bluegrass instrumentals, too, with offbeat titles like "People on the Steeple" and "Sweet Henry" (subtitled "Who's Kissinger Now").

All of the band's members sing, and all of them are accomplished instrumentalists, as well. Everything that they did came off with a flash and a polish seldom seen in even the most professional of Las Vegas stage acts. Natty Bumpo is yet unsigned, but that status should change very, very shortly, as the presence of several a&r people in the audience seemed to indicate. They could be THE group to watch in 1974.

Also on the Troubador bill was Sneaky Pete and his new group, Lone Star. Sounding, at times, very much like the old Flying Burrito Brothers, of which Sneaky was an integral part, the group ran through some fine original material in a set that topped one of the best all-around shows to be seen at this club in a long time. e.s.

The Country Gentlemen
Jimmy Martin
Ralph Stanley
Jim & Jesse

AVERY FISHER HALL, NYC—There are still some things left on this planet that haven't been exhausted or polluted. Like the pure clear water of a babbling brook, or the smell of a freshly mowed lawn, or the clean articulation of that form of music called bluegrass.

Bluegrass music didn't come out of an electronics factory, but rather evolved from the pure roots of a traditional musical heritage. Bluegrass has been around a long time and Bud Heller's "Strictly Bluegrass X-mas" gave us some of the most versatile stringed virtuosos on the scene today.

Jim & Jesse, decked in country humility. kicked off this high intensity show, Jesse McReynolds, having perfected the cross-picking style, has been classed as one of the most dexterous of mandolin stylists. Jim and The Virginia Boys, giving solid backing to Jesse's nimble fingers, let go with some real foot stompin' tunes. "Blue Ridge Mt. Blues" was a surefire bluegrass rocker followed by such up-tempo magic as "Diesel On My Tail", and "Kick Away." The Opryland recording artists concluded with the classic "Freight Train."

Ralph Stanley and the Clinch Mt. Boys featured the amazing fiddle of Curly Ray Kline. Kicking off their set with the cooking classic "The Orange Blossom Special" generated instant excitement. Considered one of the real old-time sounding bluegrass bands, the artists who have recorded for eleven different record companies, presented such tunes as "Will You Miss Me When I'm Gone," and "Katy Lady."

Jimmy Martin and The Sunny Mt. Boys were at once sparkling and vibrant. The MCA artists sung with smooth and mellow vocals in beautifully blended three-part harmonies. "Train 45" amply demonstrated Mark Pruett's skill on the banjo. In their entirety they are a novelty act who incorporate real down-home humor. Johnny Davis on fiddle was nothing short of super. "20-20 Vision" was a dynamic number that had Johnny's fiddle strings smokin'.

The Country Gentlemen performed a very impressive set. Featuring the skillful techniques of Jerry Douglas' lightning dobro fingers, the group demonstrated four part harmony and excellent instrumentation. The Vanguard artists began with the rocking number "Spanish Grass". "Casey's Last Ride" was a mellow ballad with a sensitive lyric sung in three-part harmony. Their diversified program included the hymnlike "Lord Protect My Soul", Paul Simon's "Leaves That Are Green", "House Of The Rising Sun", and "A Beautiful Life." MC David Bromberg, a fine guitarist in his own right, jammed with the group on "Arkansas Travel."

Mountain
John Martyn

HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY, HEMPSTEAD, L.I., N.Y.—After two years, one of the rock world's most popular groups, Mountain, has reformed. With a stage full of new amplifiers and a giant P.A. system, Felix Pappalardi on bass, Leslie West on lead guitar, Corky Laing behind the drums, and new member David Perry on rhythm guitar, took the stage and let loose with the hard, driving sound that their fans are so familiar with. A new tune, from an album to be released in the new year, "You Better Believe Me" opened the festivities to the resounding approval of all. Jack Bruce's "Theme For an Imaginary Western" continued with a nice jam in the middle. Eventually Mountain got to "Nantucket Sleighride", one of their classics. It lasted for almost 40 minutes and featured everyone in a solo spot. What everyone thought would be the closing tune turned out to be far from it as the group launched into "Never In My Life" with Leslie singing lead, and continuing with an extended version of "Roll Over Beethoven". Until you see Mountain, you can't imagine what people mean when they say "the sound and fury of Mountain." The group returned for a great version of "Mississippi Queen," which put the icing on a delicious piece of cake.

Opening the show was Island/Capitol recording artist John Martyn. In a difficult spot, he won the approval of the audience in his brief half hour set which featured his great guitar picking supplanted with different electronic devices. "Jellyroll Baker" was a standout. p.s.

John Hammond
Hamilton Camp

METRO CLUB, NYC—Pursuing his chosen course of making a living by singing the blues, Johnny Hammond, Columbia recording artist, brought his guitars, harmonicas, and incredible singing voice to this small village club located on legendary West 4th St. for a week of stompin', shoutin', and moanin', which drew SRO crowds every night. Near the end of the stint, Hammond found himself on stage with two old friends, Loudon Wainwright III & Jeremy Steig, and the headliner was obviously pleased.

First he jammed "Workin' Blues" with Steig, the latter supplying some jazzy, innovative flute riffs to the standard blues progression, then left the stage entirely to Wainwright, who tore the house up with his uproarious, "Dilated To Meet You". When Hammond returned, he rapped a little then launched into "I Got The Blues For You," "Lonely Days, Lonely Nights," and the classic, "I'm Mad With You," which brought the enthusiastic crowd to its feet. Later, after the show, Hammond remarked to June Mullington of Fanny that he was only interested in playing small clubs and possibly a date or two in one of the smaller concert halls, like Carnegie or Alice Tully. Judging by the reception he got at the Metro, the latter consideration wouldn't be a bad idea at all.

The evening's proceedings, which got quite funky as John built his hard core delta and Chicago blues set, were kicked off by Hamid Hamilton Camp, an individual and a group, whose country music and down-home humor served as a marked contrast to Hammond. Ham's band, now officially called the Skymonters, accompanied him on selections from their recent Elektra LP, including "Long River," "Steal Away," "Laksmi's Song," "Shadows on the Wall," and "Disaster".

Blending smooth vocal harmonies with excellent dynamics (the Metro can be difficult to get a good sound balance in), the band was particularly effective on "Gypsy". The applause Hamilton Camp received may be an indication that New York audiences are more apt to get into down-home, tongue-in-cheek country music and humor than the overworked glitter trend, and may prove an insight into coming trends for '74. d.b.

The Persuasions
Manhattan Transfer

TOWN HALL, NYC — I have never been disappointed by the Persuasions and this show was no exception. From the streets of New York, the quintet sing acapella and only acapella. As the title of their latest MCA album states, "We Still Ain't Got No Band." The Persuasions don't need a band, they are just great the way they are. Singing many favorite oldies such as "The Ten Commandments of Love" and "Lean on Me." The Persuasions incorporate an unbelievable amount of feeling and emotion into each number. The group gets the audience totally involved as everyone is clapping, singing, and/or dancing along from the very outset of the show. The group generates such energy and good-feelings that it is hard to verbally express. The Persuasions are a group that demand your immediate attention; one that you should beg, borrow, or steal for to see.

Glamorously opening the show was the Manhattan Transfer. Somewhat changed from the old Fillmore East days, the group still retained its old style musically performing old classics such as "Java" in full regalia. Their set was very impressive to the audience who requested, but did not get, an encore. p.s.

MCA Exceeds Projections

advantage that most other companies, dependent on outside manufacturers, do not have.

"In regard to product, we'll limit it because we want to be able to control production. If there's a marginal album, its been dropped from the list. Originally there were 12 albums scheduled for release in January. We've cut it down to five in order to protect the artist we are going to work with in some cases we've had to pay people to go away. We're sorry, but that's what we have to do."

Disk jockey allocations have been trimmed, according to Frio, in order to conserve vinyl supplies. In some cases, radio personnel have been asked to order those releases which they intend to play. "This is not a result of cheapness on the part of the record company. It's just that there isn't enough vinyl to go around."

Frio asserted, though, that despite vinyl shortages and cut-backs in new product, MCA would not be closed to new artists, new ideas or anybody in whom the company recognizes the potential for development. Everything, of course, will be carefully scrutinized, but MCA will continue to maintain an open door to promising new talent.

Price Increases

Prices on MCA product will almost definitely be increased in 1974, and most discounts will be eliminated. "I know that a lot of racks will complain about it, but I can't see how, with all the increases in our costs, we can keep the price down. There's the principle of supply and demand. The rack jobbers and dealers have always tended to negate that principle. As it turns out, it's the hottest albums that they want discounted to the lowest possible figure. I don't think that that's going to happen next year." MCA albums currently listed at $4.98 will be moved to $5.98 in the near future. Similarly, when the Wage and Price Administration controls are lifted next spring, MCA will consider re-pricing albums now sold at $5.98.

Sales incentive programs at MCA have been restructured to emphasize billed sales, as opposed to the "units shipped" commissions that had been paid in the past. "There will be no more laying out of merchandise for commissions." said Frio. We've guaranteed our guys the salary and commission that they've received in the past, so even if we sell less merchandise, they'll make the same amount of money. But they know now that its a cost-conscious situation, rather than one where they're expected simply to get the units out. That will ensure a reduction in returns.

"From the president of MCA Inc., Lou Wasserman, to Mike Maitland, nobody screams 'What's the gross?' It's nice; we like to see the figures, we like to talk about a record 'hitting a million.' But just as important is 'what will our return factor be on that million?' There seems to be a built-in return factor of 20%. We'd like to see how much of that 20% we can eliminate. Now, when a record starts dropping from the charts, we take appropriate action. We're pressing on a limited basis. If it happens, then we press more.

"Its been worth it, say, in the case of Lynard Skynard. That alsum started in Atlanta, then moved to Denver and San Francisco. We followed the record closely and charted its progress. We didn't have to blanket Boston with albums because the record got air-play in San Francisco. We never lost a sale, but they were absolutely controlled sales.

"We've instituted another thing, too. We have project men now—a task force of five guys who work on one specific project. In the case of "Sunshine," the TV film, we had them come in here to see the film screened on the studio lot. Then, they each took a print of the film with them and went into the branch offices to arrange advance screenings. To ensure sales, we put a spot after the television showing advertising the fact that the soundtrack was available on MCA Records. That did it—it blew wide open. That was a result, again, of controls, a plan of attack. We knew exactly what we were going to do and how we were going to do it. This kind of operation will prevent us from having to take back major returns."

The "Sunshine" soundtrack is presently listed at #54 bullet on the Cash Box album charts.

New Releases

The five releases scheduled for January include new product by Rick Nelson, who will be launching a major tour at the Roxy on Jan. 10. There will be soundtracks from the upcoming films "Willie Dynamite" and "The Sting," the latter with music by composer Scott Joplin. Former singer with Joy of Cooking, Toni Brown, will be making her debut as a soloist and an album by Michael Stanley has been recorded, titled "Friends and Legends," which will include performances by the musicians featured along with Joe Walsh on his last two, highly successful LPs.

Stressing the importance of MCA's personnel in any given record's success, Frio praised the abilities of the company's staff. Not enough credit, he believes, has filtered down to the people who have contributed to the success that the company has enjoyed both this year, and in the past.

Young & Cooper Score Gold LP's

NEW YORK—Warner Bros. recording artists Neil Young and Alice Cooper have been awarded the RIAA gold record certifying sales in excess of one million dollars for their most recent Warner Bros. albums.

Neil Young scored with "Time Fades Away". Alice Cooper for "Muscle of Love".

Ode's New Pact With A & M

ies . . . Similarly, A & M understands me and my operation as well as my business and music philosophy."

Although no specific acquisition of new distribution offers for Ode were ever made public, talk of them has been discussed and digested for months in the record industry. One quoted figure was a purchase offer made by a foreign-based leisure-time conglomerate for $15-million. This proposed arrangement was said to have Adler remaining with Ode for five years under a personal service contract.

Similarly, unprecedented distribution deals were also purported to have been made to Adler once it became general knowledge that his original arrangement with A & M would come to a close on Jan. 1, 1974.

In the end, Adler chose to continue his very personal relationship with A & M whereby Ode is the only "outside" label it distributes. Also, Adler's association with Herb Alpert began in 1958 when they got together to compose and produce many west coast surfing hit singles.

The Beginning

Ode was founded on Jan. 1, 1967, and was originally distributed by Columbia Records under a three-year contract. Adler then chose to have A & M distribute his product under another three-year pact. Their association began on Jan. 1, 1970, and has turned out to be one of the phenomenons of the record industry within recent times:

During the past three years, Ode has released 16 albums that have sold a shade under 30-million copies (29.7-million) worldwide (as of the Sept. 1 audit), according to label sources.

In the past 30-months, during which 10 of those 16 LPs have been released, all 10 have made the charts—8 in the Top Ten. And 7 out of those 8 have scored platinum-or-better status. Additionally, 6 of these 10 LPs reached the number-one rung on the charts.

Sales Leaders

Leading Ode's sales parade, of course, has been Carole King's "Tapestry" release. It has sold more than 12-million copies worldwide and has been on the charts for 142-weeks. Since "Tapestry," Ms. King has had three other LP releases, and all three have each sold more than 1-million units. (They are "Music," "Rhymes and Reasons" and "Fantasy").

Another phenomenon on the Ode label has been the comedy team of Cheech and Chong. Their first release, "Cheech and Chong," sold more than 1-million units; their second, "Big Bambu," sold more than 2.1-million units. Their third album, "Los Cochinos," has been in release for 16-weeks, has already passed the 1-million unit sales mark and gives every indication of being their biggest hit yet. (An additional industry fact-of-interest in connection with Cheech and Chong sales is that an unprecedented percentage are in tapes.)

Rounding up the list of Ode's 1-million unit album sellers was its all-star cast version of the Who's "Tommy," which was recorded in London over a nine-month period with the London Symphony Orchestra.

For the New Year, Ode will have two new albums in release, "Tom Scott and the L.A. Express" and David T. Walker's "Press On."

29 ASCAP Comps. Get Arts Grants

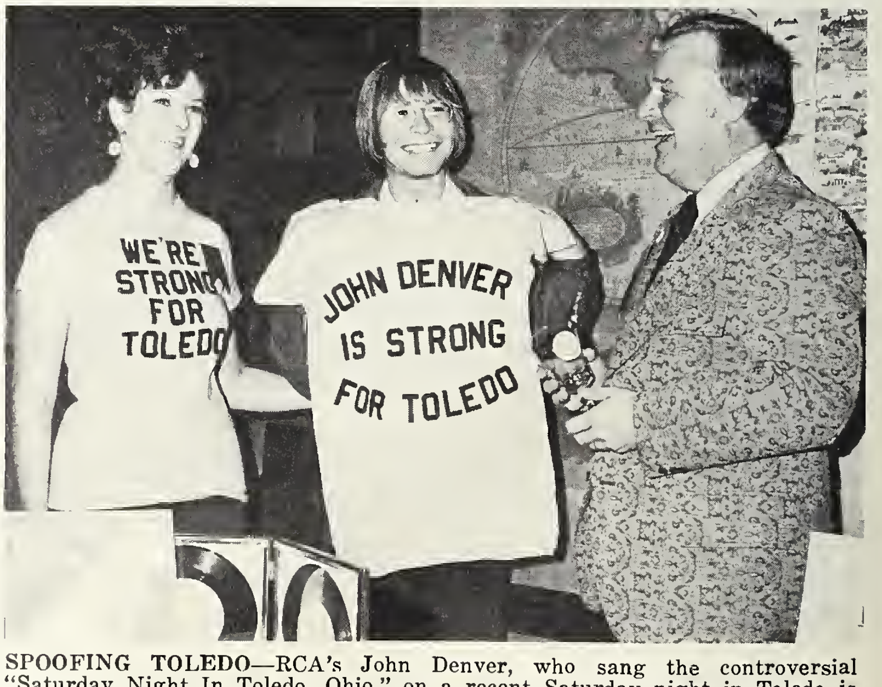
NEW YORK—The New York State Council of the Arts awarded major commissions totalling $151,890 to twenty-nine composer/members of the American Society of Composers and Publishers (ASCAP).

The new program, designed to generate works by native composers was announced by Eric Larrabee, executive director of the council, at a Carnegie Hall news conference.

The ASCAP composers in the "serious music field" who have received commissions are: Jacob Druckman, John Corigliano, Jr., Stanley Walden, Lukas Foss, David del Tredici, David Diamond, Thomas Pasatieri, George Perle, Lee Hoiby, David Epstein, Louis Weingarden, Al Carmines (Alvin), Emmanuel Ghent, George Rochberg, Warren Benson, Alvin Brehm, Phillips & Renzulli, Barbara Kolb, Morton Gould, Coleridge Taylor Parkinson, Henry Brant, James Reichert, Noel Da Costa, Virgil Thomson and Michael Colgrass.

From the popular music field, ASCAP members who are receiving grants include: Dizzy Gillespie, Thad Jones, Cecil Bridgewater and Chuck Israels.

Almost all of these creators have been recognized by ASCAP itself in recent years with cash grants by the independent judges of the Society's standard awards panel and popular awards panel. Over the past thirteen years, these panels have distributed a total of more than six million dollars in awards.



SPOOFING TOLEDO—RCA's John Denver, who sang the controversial "Saturday Night In Toledo, Ohio," on a recent Saturday night in Toledo is greeted by Louis Thompson, the city's director of Labor-Management, and Convention Bureau secretary Joyce Kinsey. Denver was made an Honorary member of the Bureau, given the traditional glass goblet, a music box, and assorted items to wear at his concert that night (11/10) in the city's Sports Arena, where 7,000 Toledoans sang the song with him, the song, which spoofs Toledo, was written by Randy Sparks of the New Christy Minstrels.

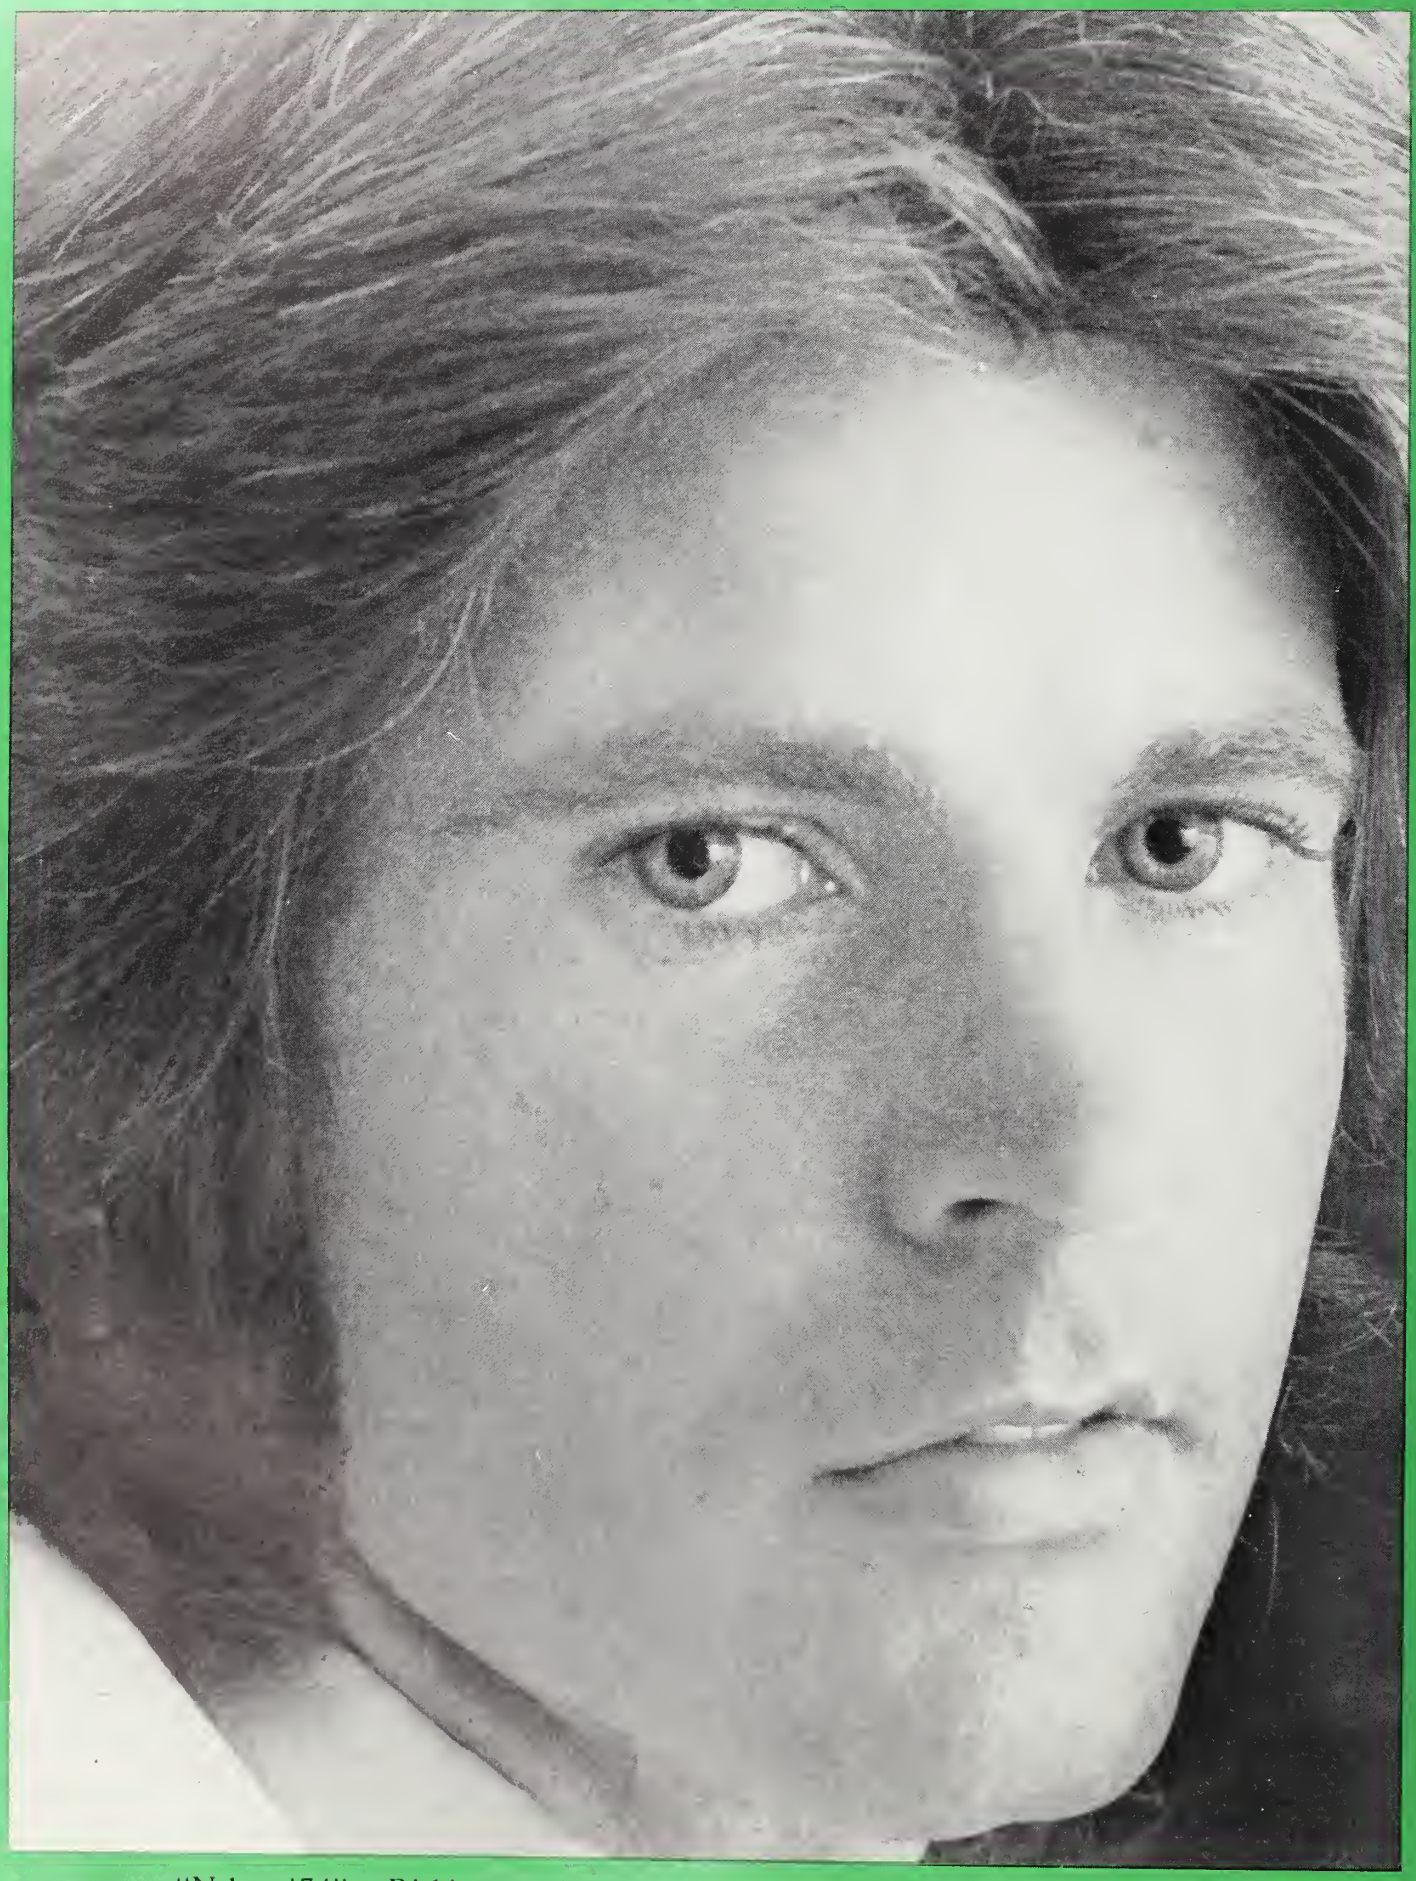
Rick Nelson
Windfall



"Nelson '74"—Rick's campaign slogan to start the new year. Rick Nelson And The Stone Canyon Band treat you to some beautiful new sounds, all on his new album, "Windfall." A perfect way to turn over a new leaf for '74.

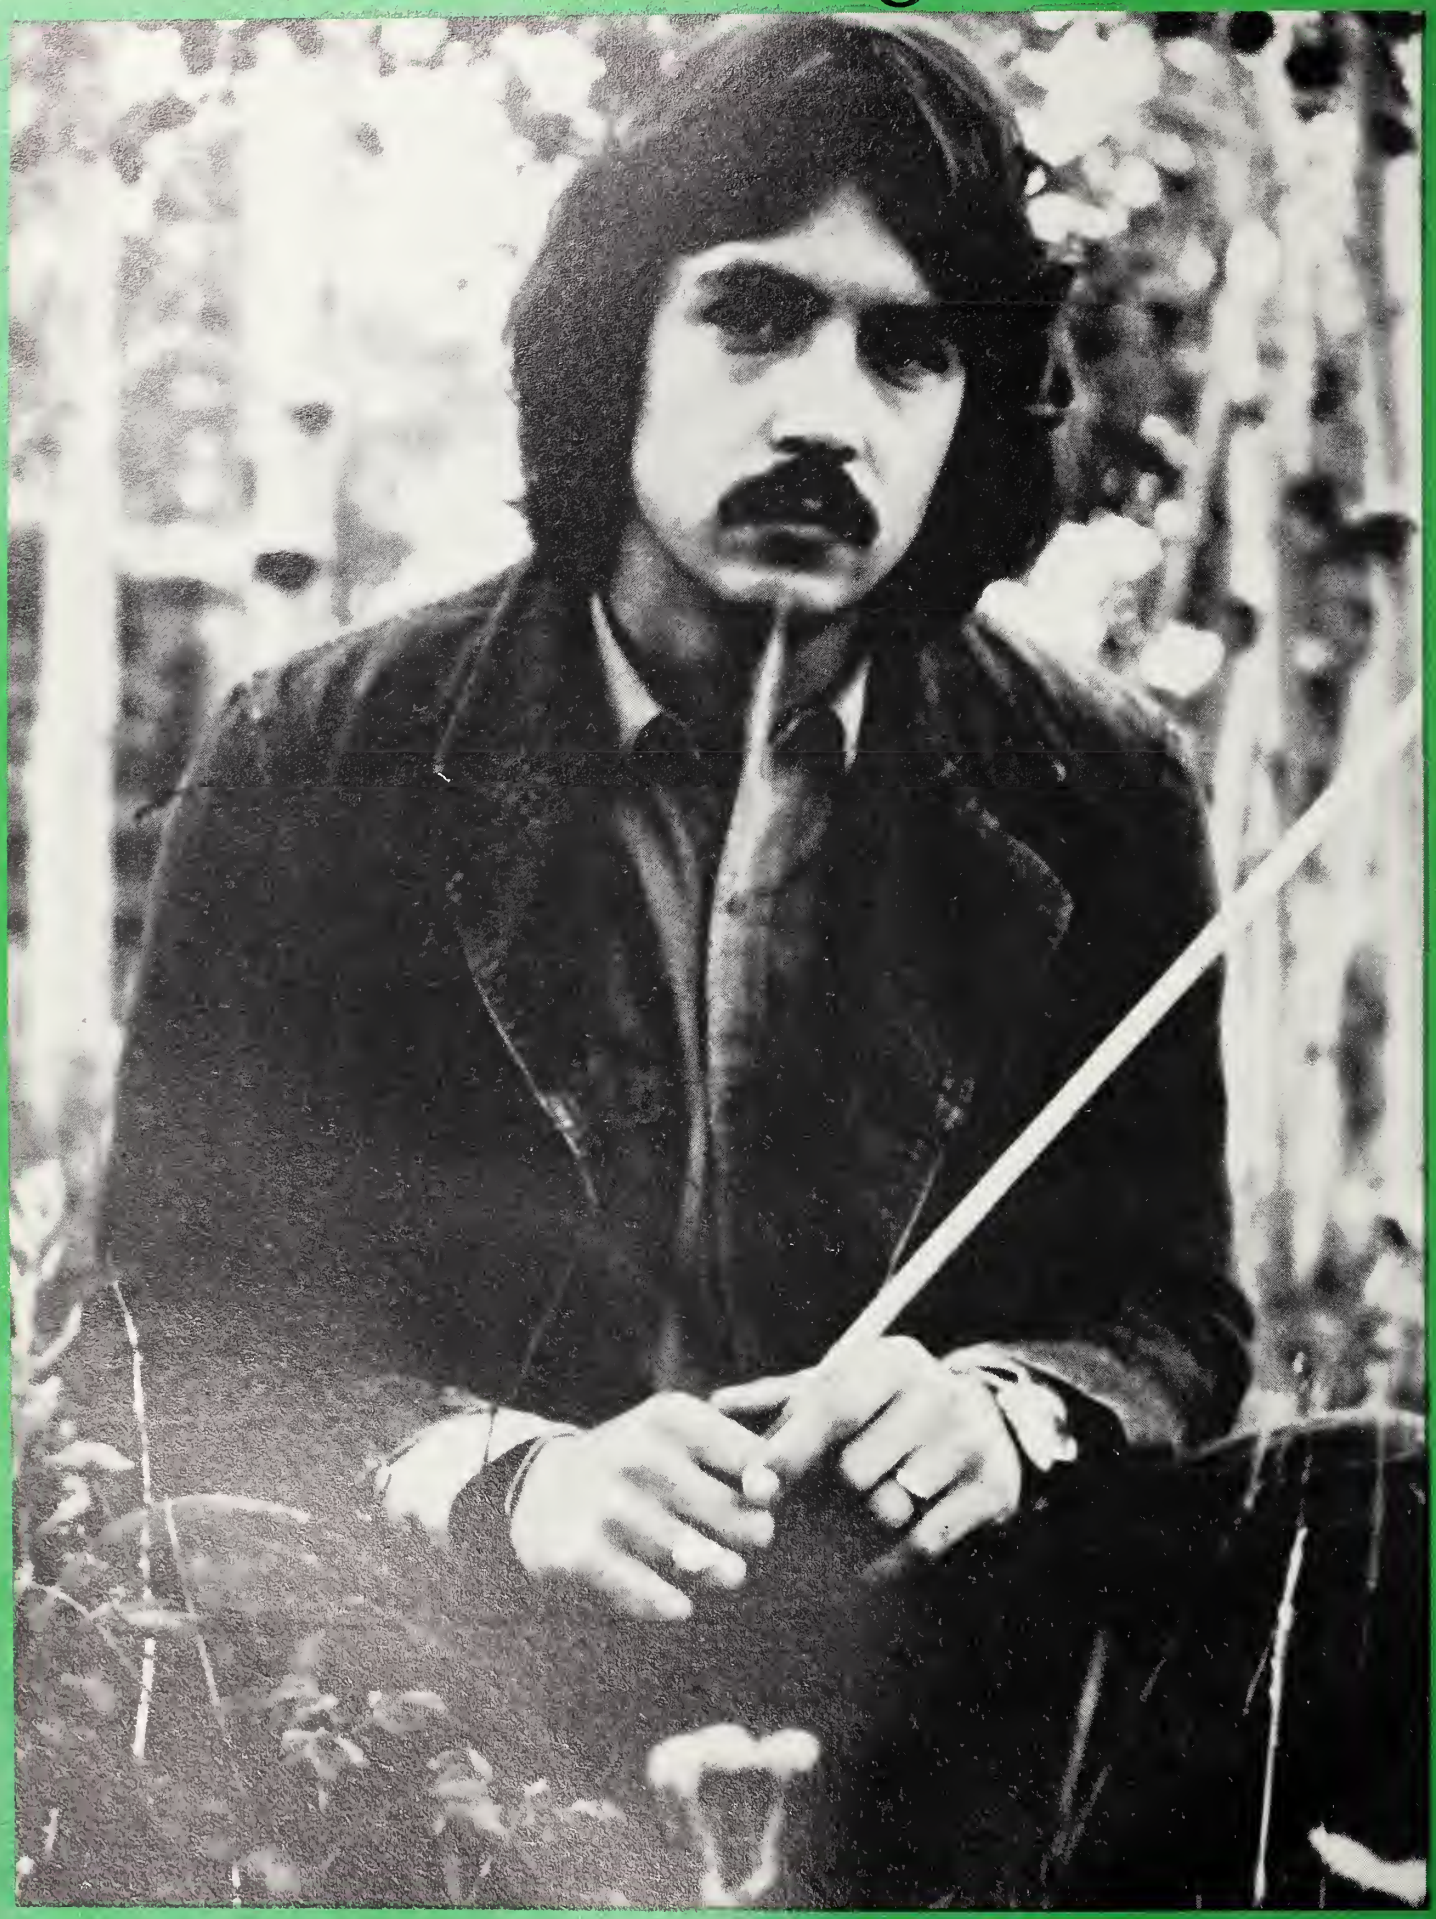
MCA RECORDS

Olivia Newton-John
Let Me Be There

Olivia lives in the country in England and sings for the country in America and is as pretty as her hit single, "Let Me Be There." Now available in an album along with 9 other great songs.

MCA-389

Michael Stanley
Friends And Legends



The songs in Michael's album were written about friends and legends. Without the help, talent and legends of all his friends who came from bands like Manassas, Barnstorm and Poco, the album wouldn't have been. "Friends And Legends", it makes you feel good. Produced by Bill Szymczyk.

SOUNDS OF THE SOUTH RECORDS

Featuring the music of

Scott Joplin

From the Universal Picture "The Sting" comes an original motion picture soundtrack album. Starring Paul Newman and Robert Redford, the movie undoubtedly will be a box office smash. The music, conducted and adapted by Marvin Hamlisch, is by the king of ragtime, Scott Joplin.

Toni Brown
Good For You, Too

Toni Brown, formerly with Joy of Cooking, is now a solo artist on MCA Records. We're proud to present "Good For You, Too"—Toni's debut album, a lyrical celebration of sound recorded in a rough-hewn log cabin some 30 miles outside of Nashville. Chip Young produced the album. Toni wrote all of the songs, and a lot of good musicians and friends like Terry Garthwaite, Toni's Joy of Cooking sidekick, helped record it. It's good for you, too.

GOOD NEWS
for dealers who stock
GOLDEN RECORDS

BUSINESS IS GREAT IN JANUARY
(think of all those kids who get phonos and money for Christmas).

For those who don't stock them, contact your local distributor and get in on the action.

We have the most complete children's line in the business: records, tapes, displays, everything you need!
As an example, our new unique 3-sided display rack (only 25" wide).

Mick's Mike

A microphone is known by the company it keeps, and the Rolling Stones are some company — as millions of fans throughout the world will attest! As a matter of fact, our Unidyne and Unisphere microphones keep regular company with just about everybody else who's somebody on the entertainment scene: Led Zeppelin, Sha-Na-Na, The Association, The Faces, The Who, The 5th Dimension, Carpenters, Sergio Mendes & Brasil '77, The Beach Boys, Paul Anka, Lainie Kazan, John Gary, David Cassidy, The Dells, Tommy James, and so many others that we can't list them all. Need we say more?

YEAR IN REVIEW—1973

JANUARY

Labels report wide gains in 1972: best year ever at Atlantic; Warners Bros. volume up 50%; Elektra up 42%; and Polydor up 72% . . . Reflecting international ties with Phonogram, Mercury changes name to Phonogram, Inc. . . . Editorial, "Returning to Returns," notes Jac Holzman's remarks: "Dumping erodes the bottom line, the confidence of the retailer, the buyer" and, last but certainly not least, "the artist" . . . Motown Industries formed: Berry Gordy chairman of the board; Ewart Abner, Motown Records' president . . . RIAA president Stan Gortikow sees 1973 as "turning point" in battle against unauthorized recordings (in later months, many raids, arrests and guilty pleas are obtained) . . . April/Blackwood Music inks deals with Kenny Gamble, Leon Huff and Thom Bell.

FEBRUARY

NARM, the wholesalers organization, hires firm to undertake study on "returns" problem, promises preliminary report at March convention in Hollywood . . . Editorial, "A Bonanza in 'Early- Cuts,' notes "healthy" trend of releasing early recordings by rock stars, which not only adds to sales, but "sets the record straight" with regard to the history of recorded music . . . Bill Farr to Polygram as marketing vp . . . McCartney Music acquires Nor Va Jac catalog, including Buddy Holly hits . . . David Rosen, Inc., 40-year-old music wholesaler, enters into Chapter 11, will later sue the WEA labels, one of its previous accounts, on anti-trust grounds . . . MCA distribution rights to Elton John's Rocket label . . .

MARCH

Jac Holzman reveals decision of Warners, Elektra and Atlantic labels to utilize "discrete" quad disk system . . . Allen Klein, George Harrison, Apple Records and Capitol Records sue ABC network and WPIX over commercials on pirated Beatles merchandise, stations promise to ban such ads . . . A. H. Prager named president of SESAC . . . Mike Roshkind named vice chairman of Motown Industries . . . Larry Uttal to NARM in keynote address: Act in present to assure industry's future . . . Editorial, "New Labels Look to R&B to Make Things Happen," notes viability of entering disk business by directing releases in black market area . . . Pricing strong issue raised at NARM convention . . . Peter Stocke elected NARM president . . . Editorial, "Correcting Ills On An Individualized Basis," calls for trade to look into their own setups to find solutions to industry problems . . . Jazz musicians claim they lose out on performance fees because licensing societies lack "logging depth" . . . Jerry Sharell named general manger of Asylum Records . . . Grammy Record of the Year: "The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face" by Roberta Flack; A&R producer, Joel Dorn . . . EMI celebrates 75th anniversary . . . Editorial, "Female Acts: Long-Term Fact of Endurance," views female recording success, born of social change, as a factor over the long haul . . . Jay Lowy president of Capitol's music publishing firms . . . MCA Records earnings reached new high in 1972 . . . Recording volume noted as higher than films or TV in recording success.

APRIL

ABKCO and Apple label end business ties; label continues through Capitol Records . . . Jim Fogelsong named president of Dot Records . . . Bell Records. in April 21 issue, holds down the numbers 1, 2 and 3 spots on the Top 100 singles chart with "The Night the Lights Went Out in Georgia" by Vicki Lawrence, "Tie a Yellow Ribbon" by Tony Orlando & Dawn and "Little Willy" by Sweet . . . Motown Industries names George Schiffer director of planning . . . Capitol Records, staging a big disk comback under Bhaskar Menon, reports big earnings increase over nine months . . . Atlantic hosts 25th anniversary sales meet in Paris . . . Elvis "Aloha" LP first quad set to hit number 1.

MAY

Columbia Records hosts 1-week festival at Ahmanson Theatre in Hollywood; tagged "A Week to Remember" . . . NARM "returns" study indicates that annual cost to typical rack is $69,000 . . . Editorial, "Radio" What About 'Newies' Slots?," urges more time-slots on radio to special new releases segments . . . RIAA: '72 disk, tape sales climb 10%, doubles 1971's figure of 5% . . . Sound Pit In Busy Season

ATLANTA — Recording artist Joe Hinton and GRC producer Marlin McNichols recorded four songs at the Sound Pit, one of which will be released as a single in February. The studio as a Michael Thevis Enterprise.

Sound Pit manager Tony DiMaria reports that other activity at the studio will include GRC's 7-member band Ripple recording their next single. Producer is Dee Ervin. Ripple's first single "I Don't Know What It Is, But It Sure Is Funky" was a chart record in both r&b and pop. Lead vocalist for the group, Keith Samuels, did some solo recording during the session.

Working on string and horn arrangements for his new album is singer Sonny Turner. DiMaria reports Turner will be mixing his entire LP at the Sound Pit.

Aware label artist John Edwards was in the studio working with producer Floyd Smith, on a series of songs for an upcoming single release and album. The native Chicago singer will be back at the Sound Pit next week to complete final mixing.

MCA Expands Marketing Program To TV Advtg. As Major Medium

UNIVERSAL CITY — MCA Records has recently expanded its marketing program by utilizing television commercials as a major medium for advertising its product. MCA initiated its TV advertising program on Nov. 9 with the simultaneous soundtrack album release and TV airing of the CBS film "Sunshine." The sales response to the soundtrack album only a few days after the TV commercial has been attributed to the commercial time-buy.

TV spots advertising Elton John's "Yellow Brick Road" aired on In Concert and Midnight Special Dec. 7 and will run again Dec. 21 and 28 on Midnight Special. A split screen technique was used for the first time in a TV spot for the Who's "Quadrophenia" LP, which aired Dec. 14 on Midnight Special and will show on Dec. 21 on In Concert.

George Osaki, MCA's creative services director, has been acting as company producer/director for all MCA TV commercials. He cited TV spots for Rick Nelson's "Windfall" LP (to be released in January), and the soundtrack from "American Grafitti" as future productions.

Lee Chapman, Rufus Productions' president and freelance director, is credited with directing the "Sunshine" and Who spots. Chapman, who teaches at Art Center, most recently directed the 1974 Lincoln-Mercury Campaign for Paisley Productions.

David Grey, director/editor and head of Post-Time, Inc., directed the Elton John spot and edited the "Sunshine," Who, and soon-to-be-released Rick Nelson commercials. Grey's most recent activities include the editing of the 1974 Chevrolet campaign spots.

Tom Wilkes, director of the Rick Nelson commercial, has his own production company, and will soon be filming a documentary on the Kohoutek Comet in Peru with editor David Grey.

Marketing v.p. Rick Frio commented, "Television advertising is a new area for us and the initial reaction has been commercially overwhelming. We see this as an innovative move for MCA and as an integral part of our overall marketing program."

Rick Nelson To 'Kirshner Concert' As Headliner

HOLLYWOOD — Rick Nelson, MCA Records recording artist, has been signed to star in a forthcoming "Don Kirshner's Rock Concert" 90-minute TV special, it was announced by Don Kirshner, executive producer of the series.

Nelson's appearance on the pop-rock show marks his first guest-starring appearance on television in a variety format since he appeared with Andy Williams in 1970. The Kirshner show will air in early 1974. Nelson will be joined on the show by The Stone Canyon Band.

Nelson, within the past year, has made dramatic guest-starring appearances on the "Owen Marshall" and "The Streets of San Francisco" TV series.

In addition, Kirshner revealed that discussions are underway for Nelson to star in a major network series to be produced under the Don Kirshner Productions banner.

MCA Records recently announced a national promotional push for Nelson titled "Nelson '74." The promotion will kick off with the release of Nelson's new album "Windfall" and will be a coordinated effort dealing with disc jockey promotions, a national concert tour, in-store displays and a heavy radio and television buy.

"Don Kirshner's Rock Concert" is now syndicated in 120 markets and is a co-production venture between Don Kirshner Productions and Viacom Enterprises.

EJ THE DJ — Elton John fulfilled a long-time ambition when he recently turned disk jockey for a couple of hours. The chart-topping British rock star is seen with Richard Kimball, KMET music director (left) and Pat Pipolo, vice president, promotion, MCA Records.

Amer. Music Awards Set To Air; Pop, Soul, Country Awds In Feb.

HOLLYWOOD — The ABC Television Network and Dick Clark Teleshows, Inc., have created the American Music Awards to honor artists and music selected by public vote as the best in the fields of pop, soul, and country. According to Edwin T. Vane, vice president, national program director, ABC Entertainment, the network will telecast the first presentation of the awards in a special 90-minute program, entitled "The American Music Awards." Tuesday, Feb. 19 (8:30-10:00 p.m., EST).

Originating from Hollywood, the special show will feature star presenters from the entertainment world and performances by some of the winning artists.

In each of the three fields—pop, soul, and country—there will be five awards, citing the best male vocalist, the best female vocalist, the best group, duo or chorus; the best album and the best single. In addition, a distinguished merit award will go to one person in the music world in recognition of his contribution to music. There will thus be 16 American Music Awards.

Ballots will be sent to a national sample of the music audience selected by the New York-based company Marketing Evaluation, Inc., which will provide a cross-section of the public based on geographic location, age, sex, and ethnic origin. This will be the first time that the public will have an opportunity to choose its favorites for national awards for a network telecast.

Nominees for each award will be listed on the ballot specially devised from information accumulated through the combined resources of the record and broadcasting trade magazines. In addition, the voter will have a chance to add his own choice as a write-in.

Dick Clark is the executive producer of the special, and Bill Lee is the producer. John Moffitt will direct.

'Polished Performer' Hits NY TV Air

NEW YORK — WABC-TV's "Like It Is" series will feature "The Polished Performer," an all-musical program focusing on the ingredients which go into "polished acts" as seen on the stage by the public, Sunday, December 30, 2:30-3:30 p.m., on Channel 7, N.Y.

During the hour-long program, which was originally broadcast November 18, the "man-on-the-street" talks about his favorite singing stars, and is asked if he realizes what preparation goes into the perfection of a professional performance. These interviews will be interspersed with filmed performances by Gladys Knight and the Pips, Freda Payne, The Pointer Sisters, The Temptations, Sly and The Family Stone, Stevie Wonder and Curtis Mayfield.

"The Polished Performer" will also include a behind-the-scenes look at a recording session, interviews with Gladys Knight and The Pips and songwriters/singers Nick Ashford and Valerie Simpson about how they create a "polished performance," and three songs by The Main Ingredient.

Slade Hits BBC Top Spot Again

NEW YORK — Slade, England's hit pop group, have achieved another milestone in their career. For the fourth time in a row, they have released a single which attained the number one spot on the BBC charts on the day of its release. The current single to achieve this honor is "Merry Xmas." The three previous singles which accomplished this feat were: "My Friend Stan," "Skweeze Me Pleeze Me" and "Cum On Feel The Noize."

In addition, "Merry Xmas" was certified gold before its release, the gold disk being presented to Slade on the "Top Of The Pops" TV show in England. "Merry Xmas" is Slade's ninth hit-single and their eighth Number One single.

Slade, who record for Warner Bros./Reprise in the United States, are just completing a tour of Europe and are scheduled to tour the U.S in Jan.-Feb. The tour will include appearances in Philadelphia, Hartford, Cleveland, Detroit, San Francisco, Los Angeles and St. Louis as well as an appearance on Don Kirshner's Rock Concert TV show.

NEW YORK—CASH BOX'S GREATEST HITS: THE EDITORS DISCUSS THEIR FAVES OF '73

ARTY GOODMAN

In anticipating the coming musical year of 1974, my hopes continue to ride with those country rockers who have been slowly, but surely, easing their talents into the hearts and minds of not only the general public, but the music industry as well. The recent successes of Linda Ronstadt, Jackson Browne, Poco, Eagles and Loggins & Messina are cases in point, but 1974 should bring about more pleasant, laid-back, rock-country melodies from many artists, previously renowned for their work as either session men, or concert side performers. Naturally, rock, both hard and soft, will continue its popularity, but watch out for those country rockers, and the influence they will probably have, next year.

Linda Ronstadt

DAVID BUDGE

I think that if any clear trend can be looked to in the coming year, it's going to come from established professionals who have enjoyed their flirtation with decadence and are ready to start living up to their potential. Elton John's "Yellow Brick Road" LP is a good start, showing range, depth, and some strong material, and Steve Miller, a pro's pro, has come full circle and will definitely be a major force in the coming year. Add the re-emergence of Dr. John to the steadily improving diet of rhythm and blues, and you can pretty well feel 1974's pulse already.

ARTY GOODMAN'S

BEST OF THE NEW-IES:

BEST NEW GROUP — In again splitting a category, this split is a bid wider. Many new groups appeared in 1973 with the creme de la creme in the forms of The Sweet, Painter, Queen and Bachman-Turner Overdrive, all high energy rockers with a more than capable ability to rock any unsuspecting soul right out of his or her seat. All should be major influences in 1974, proving that rock and roll will continue to be here to stay, as long as these four groups continue to rock and roll.

Ellie Greenwich

BEST NEW MALE ARTIST — In splitting this category three ways, the choices are Bruce Springsteen, Elliott Murphy and Larry Norman, three folk-rockers with a definite hint of vintage Dylan in their lyrical compositions. Each is equally able to incorporate a hard rocking musical companion for those lyrics, and once folks start listening closely, each will undoubtedly become a superstar in his own right. Springsteen seems most likely at this point.

The Sweet

BEST NEW FEMALE ARTIST — The nod would have gone to Ellie Greenwich, based upon her nothing short of sensational debut LP, but her future as a performer at this point is questionable. Should she return to performing and recording, success would be a sure shot. The nod, however, goes to Linda Hargrove, Elektra recording artist, who spins some of the prettiest country-folk-rock this side of anywhere. Her album track, "New York City Song" is certainly one of the prettiest (and most truthful) ever written. Should things start happening for Linda, they will happen in a big way. She is definitely a major talent.

DAVID BUDGE'S

BEST OF THE NEW-IES:

BEST NEW GROUP — 10cc, a quartet alternately capable of sounding like the Beach Boys, the Beatles and even Redbone. Stunning harmonies, tongue-in-cheek lyrics, and innovative production characterize this UK Records band, which is as capable a hit-producing machine as any we've seen in years. Look for them to break big in the U.S. in 1974.

10cc

Melissa Manchester

BEST NEW FEMALE ARTIST — Melissa Manchester, Bell Records' sensational composer/performer is my choice for new female performer of the year. Her style, feminine and sensuous without being gaudy, is her strongest asset. She's got all the charm and savvy to compliment her excellent original material, and her combination of shy coyness and overwhelming vocal strength will carry her far up the ladder of recognition in the coming year.

BEST NEW MALE ARTIST — Garland Jeffries, a composer/performer who at last has been able to secure a recording deal with a reputable major label-Atlantic. His debut solo LP is excellent and he shows tremendous promise. A favorite amongst critics and a regular on the New York scene, Garland could easily become a major force in 1974 with his songs becoming as fashionable as Dylan's once were.

POP PICKS

COAST TO COAST OVERTURE AND BEGINNERS—Rod Stewart/Faces—Mercury SRM—1-697

The much awaited Faces live LP is here at last, and it's great. With super-vocalist Rod Stewart leading the way, Ian McLagan, Ron Wood, Kenny Jones, and new bassist Tetsu Yamauchi pace their way through a set including such standards as "It's All Over Now," "I Wish It Would Rain," and Jimi Hendrix's "Angel," as well as their own popular favorites, "Stay With Me," "Too Bad/Every Picture Tells A Story," and "Borstal Boy/Amazing Grace." The effort was taped live at the Anaheim Convention Center and Hollywood Palladium in Oct., '73 and the sound is clear and well balanced. One of the best live acts around, the Faces score again with this super album.

T. B. SHEETS—Van Morrison—Bang BLP 400

One of the finest, most often imitated composer/performers of this or any era, Van Morrison has always served as a role model for modern folk-blues artists and this collection of some of his biggest songs is a blockbuster. The title track is a haunting and eerie today as it was in 1968 and the memorable cuts "Brown Eyed Girl", "Madame George", and "It's All Right" jump off the tracks into your head with nostalgic ferocity. As always, Van's distinctive vocals and incredible penchant for coloratura are the soul and substance of the album, but listen again to the perceptive lyrics and you'll appreciate the package even more.

LADY LOVE—Barbara Mason—Buddah BDS 5140

Barbara is definitely a very ready girl as you'll discover upon listening to her latest LP, a stunning collection of six beautiful ballads, and the smokin' uptempo social commentary, "World War Three." Barbara has always had a captivating and distinctive vocal style and she puts it to excellent use on her sequel to Billy Paul's single which she calls "Me and Mr. Jones." "Bed and Board," "Caught In The Middle," "All In Love Is Fair" (Stevie Wonder's great composition), and "Who'd Ever Think" feature Ms. Mason at her unbridled, sensitive best and she distinguishes each cut through her lyric approach.

MFSB: LOVE IS THE MESSAGE—MFSB—Philadelphia International—KZ 32707

Mother, fathers, sisters, and brothers everywhere will be getting down when they hear the latest from MFSB, highlighted by the single, "TSOP (The Sound Of Philadelphia)," which is the theme from the popular TV show "Soul Train." Created with heavy perpetual motion in mind, these classy instrumentals ranging from Mac Rice's hit song "Cheaper To Keep Her" (done by Johnnie Taylor) to "Touch Me In The Morning" (the Diana Ross hit), are just what the doctor ordered for a case of the blues. The jazz accents on top of the driving, intensely funky Philly rhythm patterns are prominent on "Love Is The Message." A great LP.

THE EBONYS—The Ebonys—Philadelphia International KZ 32419

The powerful soul quartet is back again with a polished and professional effort highlighted by previous smash, "It's Forever" and some of the funkiest cuts we've heard from them since their first LP. Check out "Hook Up and Get Down," "Sexy Ways," and "Nation Time," and you'll begin to pick up on the essence of this group who spent years in small clubs getting their act together before exploding onto the scene as one of the most demanded acts on the soul circuit. A very interesting version of the classic "I Believe" demonstrated the versatility the Ebonys are capable of and it's to their credit they handle it so well.

THE SEASONS—The San Sebastian Strings, Rod McKuen, Anita Kerr—Warner Bros. 4WS 2754

This beautiful package is multi-faceted, containing four albums and a twenty page folio including poems, photos, and a special discography highlighting the incredible collaboration between the San Sebastian Strings, Rod McKuen, and lovely Anita Kerr. In dealing with the four seasons, spring, summer, autumn, and fall, McKuen has put his pen and voice to excellent use narrating the poetic saga so characteristic of his philosophy and Ms. Kerr has composed and arranged some beautiful pieces of music which the San Sebastian Strings render with the superb dexterity and sensitivity that has been their hallmark.

SOUND TRACK PICKS

SERPICO—Original Motion Picture Soundtrack Mikis Theodorakis—Paramount PAS 1016

Judging from this atmospheric soundtrack so reminiscent of "Zorba the Greek," Mikis Theodorakis has a good deal to be proud of for his latest effort, the music to "Serpico." The theme from Dino De Laurentiis' production is quaint and musically picturesque and serves as an excellent backdrop to the provocative film. Individually, the cuts range from middle European ethnic to jazz and reflect the rapidity with which this story moves. "Honest Cop," "Meeting In The Park," "Laurie's Fable," "Disillusion," and "Alone In The Apartment" are intimate, revealing musical sketches of a maverick character whose only flaw was his honesty.

BROTHER ON THE RUN—Original Motion Picture Soundtrack—Adam Wade, Johnny Pate—Perception PLP-45

This fine soundtrack from the exciting motion picture is noteworthy because it's able to stand alone as few soundtracks can, maintaining musical dynamic tension on levels both subtle and obvious. The title track, sung by Adam Wade, is a funky tune in the "Superfly" vein, and is typical of the Johnny Pate compositions that make up the material in this collection. "Auto Chase" is incredibly exciting, building to a screeching crescendo and "Ms. Johnston's Sex Scene" is hauntingly seductive and sensuous. Well conceived and executed. "Maude's Intro." and "Maude Reminisces" are very effective. A dynamite package.

JAZZ PICKS

INTENSITY—John Klemmer—Impulse AS-9244

John's devotion to jazz and his total commitment to advancing the state of the art is in full and blossoming evidence on his appropriately titled new LP. Intensity is indeed the watchword for this collection which in part pays tribute to the late jazz giant John Coltrane. "Prayer For John Coltrane" and "Waltz For John Coltrane" are highly moving pieces in which Klemmer lets his sax say all the things that words somehow cannot. "Love Song For Katherine" is dedicated, as is the entire LP, to his lady, and is a rapturous romantic tune which captures the feeling to a tee. A compassionate effort, the LP can be appreciated on a number of levels.

QUINTESSENTIAL RECORDING SESSION—Earl Hines—Chiaroscuro CR 101

For more years than most of today's younger musicians have been here, keyboard master Earl Hines has been regarded as one of the true genuses of his craft. He recorded his first piano solos, believe it or not, way back in 1928, before the era of tape, overdubbing, etc., and the zest that he brings to his ragtime, jazz style is an infectiously catchy now as it was during the 'black bottom days.' Now Early has some other things to say and when you listen to "My Monday Date," "Chicago High Life," "Stow Away," "Panther Rag," and "Just To Soon," you'll feel like he's talking to you alone. An interesting package.

SAMMY JOHNS—Sammy Johns—GRC GA 5003

Backed by a group of heavy studio session men, Sammy has himself a very promising debut album, filled with a variety of pleasing sounds ranging from "Early Morning Love" and "Jenny" to "Way Out Jesus" and "Holy Mother, Aging Father." There is a definite gospel flavor running through the countrified songs on this LP, embodied in the person of the redoubtable Mylon LeFevre, who sings background vocals along with the Blackberries and Herb Pedersen. Other musicians of note who play on the LP are Jim Gordon, Larry Knectel (co-producer), Jim Horn, and Buddy Emmons, all of whom compliment Sammy.

Cash Box/R&B News Report

R & B INGREDIENTS—First off—May I take this opportunity to thank all of you for being so helpful to me in 1973. I am looking forward to '74; and your continued cooperation. Right On! Also, I will continue to do what I can to be of assistance . . . In retrospect, '73 was a year of broader acceptance of black talent and musical concepts. Largely through the creative producing talents of Gamble-Huff, Thom Bell and Willie Mitchell; also producer/performer talents such as Isaac Hayes, Barry White, Curtis Mayfield and, of course, the soul brother #1, James Brown; black talent continued to climb higher . . . Gladys Knight & The Pips (Buddah) played to sellout audiences at the Waldorf Astoria . . . Al Green set a new box office record at the Apollo (NYC) . . . Veteran writer performers, Bobby Bland, Don Covay, Jerry Butler, Millie Jackson and Aretha Franklin—all—reached new heights . . . Marvin Gaye and Eddie Kendricks set the airwaves and sales figures on fire with, "Let's Get It On", and "Keep On Truckin", respectively . . .Stevie Wonder is coming through with, "Living For The City" which looms as an all-time standard . . . Bob Long (WCIN-Cincinnati) has come up with a great name for Gladys Knight (The Ice Lady). We're all familiar with "The Ice Man" title for Jerry Butler. And, I think you'll have to agree that (The Ice Lady) is a great title for Gladys, who is a super-funk cool performer. We have The Ice Man, why not have The Ice Lady! . . . And, it was definitely a year for solo and group black newcomers. Kool And The Gang (De-Lite Records) came through with a couple of blazers. "Funky Stuff", "Jungle Boogie" and another LP cut "Hollywood Squares" is beginning to shape up as a monster for '74 . . . Lamont Dozier of Holland-Dozier Holland fame has gone solo (ABC) and he is kickin' with "Trying To Hold On To My Woman." His LP is a hot mover . . . Fatback Band (Perception-Today Label) has a new single for '74 "Soul March", another group on the move. Also, be on the lookout for Charen Cotten from Philadelphia. This soul-lass was born in Pittsburgh. She has been signed to Perception. A single will be headin' your way. A swingin' lookin' gal too! . . . Chess/Janus is on a hot streak. 1619 B.A.B. (4-guys and a gal) have a cookin' record with, "World" on Chess. The lead singer of the Ohio Players, Junie Morrison has a solo called, "Tightrope" and it should walk to the top of the charts. And, from the Chess family on Eastbound, Fantastic Four, "I'm Falling In Love" is another giant that will be heralding in 1974 . . . Also, on the independent R&B label scene, several labels came through. Lou Courtney on Rags made a name for himself. The label is now distributed through Columbia, "Wish That You Were Mine" is the tune that did it . . . Pi Kappa Records did a fine job with Jimmy Briscoe, "Where Were You". Paul Kaiser says that a newly signed group, 'Storm' is about to be unleashed or unlashed for '74. Their release is, "I Don't Know Why". The Softones on Avco, a down-to-earth group, should really blossom into a super-group . . . The Spinners (Atlantic) are taking over a Greek-Liner, the Anna Maria for a 10-day cruise to the Virgin Islands. Naturally, they will be performing.

To all a happy and prosperous 1974!

New Artists Program Coming; Freddie Scott Concepts, Inc.

(Charles' Gallery Swings)

NEW YORK — A hip party was given Friday December 14, 1973 by Freddie Scott Concepts Inc. (FSC is a new music corporation complex) and Charles' Gallery (a new restaurant-bar-disco located at 315 West 125th St. in Harlem, N.Y.) spotlighting singer, arranger, writer, co-president Freddie Scott. Charles' Gallery was packed the entire night with family, friends, press and celebrities from the worlds of music, fashion, sports, stage and screen. The party which began at 9:30 P.M. jumped until 5 A.M. the following morning.

During the evening's activities FSC previewed selections from the upcoming Freddie Scott album, "Time Has Come." This album will be the first in a series of albums to be released on the new FSC Record label. Also, co-president Rod Bristow made the following statement:

"The formation of Freddie Scott Concepts Inc. is an idea that began over a decade ago when Freddie and I met while performing on tour. During our many travels we would often discuss concepts to help free some aspects from the music industry people who exploit recording artists and personalities. Conceptually FSC is that idea. Under the corporate roof FSC will accommodate artists with the following services: a label (FSC Records), production, recording material, recording facilities, publishing, career consultation and guidance, public relations and press services, advertising, publicity and photography. FSC will center its interests around developing better understanding through the media of music. We've joined forces with other concerned music business professionals and the likes from other industries to further this endeavor.

For those concerned professionals interested contact, Rod Bristow, Freddie Scott Concepts Inc., 2756 Barnes Avenue, Bronx, N.Y. 10467, 212-547-0185.

Picks of the Week

SLY & THE FAMILY STONE (Epic 5-11060)
If It Were Left Up To Me (1:58) (Stoneflower, BMI—S. Stewart)
Sly triumphs again with this powerhouse of funk culled from his recent "Fresh" LP (and originally the "B" side of his last single "Frisky"). Sly and the ladies get up front with this ready to breakout smash. It may be a short one, but every second is spelling out chartbound. Flip: no info. available.

THE JAMES GANG (Atco 6953)
Must Be Love (3:30) (Thermostat, ASCAP—T. Bolin, J. Cook)
Group's first outing for their new label is a rocker certain to make loads of chart noise in the first few months of 1974. The feeling is close to that generated by the Allman Brothers, complete with very tasty slide guitar licks and smooth harmonies. A hearty welcome back for the Gang. This one "must be hit." Flip: no info. available.

SYLVIA (Vibration 528)
Private Performance (2:15) (Gambi, BMI—S. Robinson, M. Burton)
Once again, oozing that magical sexual sensuality that brought her to the top of the charts with "Pillow Talk," Sylvia dynamically proves that there's no woman alive who can put across a message as she does. That, now patented whispering vocal is there and boy does it work. As for the lyrics, well, it's not too hard to figure out exactly what she's talking about. A stone smash! Flip: If You Get The Notion (3:34) (Credits same as above).

FLEETWOOD MAC (Reprise 1188)
For Your Love (3:44) (Blackwood, BMI—G. Gouldman)
Graham Gouldman (now with 10cc) classic song, originally recorded by the Yardbirds back in the "British Invasion Era" of rock receives a totally contemporary, yet still hard rocking treatment from this great British band of rockers. The essence of the tune is still there and if you know the tune, you know that definitely means a chart topping hit! Flip: no info. available.

ALBERT KING (Stax 0189)
That's What The Blues Is All About (3:45) (East/Memphis/Rogan, BMI—J. Strickland, B. Patterson)
B. B. King, Bobby Bland, and now Albert King, all blues masters, are all back for another chart run. This latest, cooking track from Albert is definitely his best in some time and a certain future chart item. The tempo is up, but it's still the blues and few can deliver the blues as Albert can. Flip: I Wanna Get Funky (3:59) (East/Memphis, BMI—C. Smith).

TYRONE DAVIS (Dakar 540)
I Wish it Was Me (3:12) (Julio—Bryan, BMI—L. Graham)
No doubts here about Tyrone's return to both pop and r&b charts with this moderate-lp tune filled with funk, as only Tyrone can deliver it. Sweet string section backing his vocal makes the track even more desirable and even more certain for high chart status. Flip: no info. available.

THE HOLY MODAL ROUNDERS (Metromedia BMBO 0201)
Boobs A Lot (2:49) (Unieed International, ASCAP—S. Weber)
Originally a Mothers track, the Rounders (as insane as they are) re-establish this track and bring it into a strong hitbound light. Already a West Coast breakout track, it won't be long before other markets start hopping on this one. The lyrics may seem questionable, but they're not really. This is just a fun song that most folks will get off on. Flip: Black Bottom (2:41) (Sunbeam, BMI—A. S. Weber, P. Stampfel).

JERRY VALE (Columbia 4-45992)
Free As The Wind (3:26) (Soultown, BMI—H. Shaper, J. Goldsmith)
The song is from the recently Steve McQueen-Dustin Hoffman "Papillion" flick (although this version does not appear in the film) and a beauty it is. Soft, sensitive performance by Jerry will have folks who loved the movie loving this song. Gorgeous lyrics will give "The Way We Were" a true run for the Academy Award money. Fip: Reason To Believe (4:23) (The Hudson Bay, BMI—T. Hardin).

Newcomer Picks

BYRON MacGREGOR (Westbound 222)
Americans (3:48) (Conestoga, BMI—G. Sinclair)
A Canadian editorial supporting U.S. involvement in world crisis' prompted this recording of that same editorial (musically backed by "America The Beautiful") telling the world that it's about time they helped out America. Stunning reading by Byron MacGregor packs a wallop that is a first round K.O. Sales already indicate a Top 10 standing for this one and a simply amazing out-of-the-clear-red-white-and-blue-sky smash. Flip: America The Beautiful (3:42) (Southfield, ASCAP—P.D.).

RICK DERRINGER (Blue Sky 2751)
Rock And Roll Hoochie Koo (2:55) (Derringer, BMI—R. Derringer, B. Szymczyk)
Classic rocking track as recorded by Rick is better than ever and a definite Top Ten item in the coming month of January. Hotter licks than ever before and Rick's great vocal performance are right there up front ready to blast the world right out of their seats. If there is a coming superstar in 1974, that name is undoubtedly Rick Derringer. From his great "All American Boy" LP, don't miss this one! Flip: Time Warp (2:56) (Derringer, BMI—R. Derringer, B. Szymczyk).

TERRY JACKS (Bell 432)
Seasons In The Sun (3:24) (E. B. Marks, BMI—J. Brel, R. McKuen)
Great pop arrangement of Jacques Brel classic (with English lyrics by Rod McKeun) is already a Canadian smash and is seemingly headed in the same direction in the U.S. Top, sensitive performance by Terry makes this one a certain contender for the top of the pops in early '74. Could be one of the biggest of the upcoming year. Flip: no info. available.

LUCIFER'S FRIEND (Billingsgate 4502)
I'm Just A Rock 'N' Roll Singer (3:49) (Intersong, ???—Hesslein, Lawton)
Group that has generated much underground interest due to their resemblance to Led Zeppelin debuts with this single, a high powered, energetic rocker guaranteed to get folks up and rocking right along. Track contains an added horn section for that extra taste of rhythm. Programmers should flip this one as well for that Led Zep soundalike "B" side, too. Chart action in the not-too-distant future. Flip: Everybody's Clown (4:14) (Intersong, ???—Hesslein, Docker, Hecht, Horns, Rietenbach).

ADRIANO CELENTANO (Columbia 4-45989)
Prisencolinensinainciusol (3:43) (Frank, ASCAP—A. Celentano)
Attempts to pronounce this title will probably be in vain in many cases, but there's no denying the American hit potential of this recent Top charted smash in France. A great dance record highlighted by a strong vocal performance and backing horn section. Look for stations around the county to be picking up on this track in droves. Listener phones will be a fine representation of this tunes possibilities. Flip: Disc Jockey (5:29) (April, ASCAP—A. Celentano, L. Beretta, M. Del Prete).

MELVIN DAVIS (Invictus 1259)
You Made Me Over (3:35) (Blackwood/Gold Forever, BMI—M. Smith, R. Dunbar)
Not the musical answer to Dionne Warwick's "Don't Make Me Over" oldie question, this one is simply a dynamite r&b tune certain to cross over into pop markets immediately. The song is equal to the top performance by this talented newcomer and brings fond memories of the early days of the Temptations. The Holland-Dozier-Holland production touch, complete with strings give that added tasty quality that definitely spells hit. Flip: no info. available.

KENNY SEYMOUR (Shout 300)
I've Got The Rest Of My Life (To Love You) (3:03) (Web IV/Wesaline, BMI—K. Seymour)
Rolling in on that Southern tidal wave of super smashes, this r&b hitbound by Kenny looks to be one of those early in the year successes that just won't be headed off. Rolling beat and funky lead vocal is the order of the day here, and just sit back and let yourself get floored by the hooks. Hopefully the first of many hits for this fine new artist. Flip: no info. available.

HOLLYWOOD—CASH BOX'S GREATEST HITS: EDITORS DISCUSS THEIR FAVES OF '73

RON BARON

Music will also observe the energy crisis by utilizing smaller orchestrations, possibly bring back combos and trios (self contained musicians). The rock theatrics, so popular this year, has nearly burned itself out going from opulence to decadence to nonsense. Besides there's a national shortage on sequins and glitter. Expect to hear more from Dawn and other such groups. There'll be a lot more records advertised on television and don't be too surprised to see "coming attractions" of new records and concert tours in your local movie theatre. The music of Stephen Foster and "Riverboat" music might also develop this coming year. Are you ready for "Riverboat Rock"? The original Dooley Wilson's "As Time Goes By" (from "Casablanca") is being re-released as a single by Warners and could easily be the first turntable sleeper of the year. Music will be as great as ever " . . . no matter what the future brings, as time goes by."

ELIOT SEKULAR

The popular music audience continued to diversify in 1973 and perhaps the only binding force to emerge was that of television exposure. As that medium continues to gain in importance, it will become imperative for pop acts to concern themselves with stage craft, choreography or any visual gimmick they can employ. Watch out for Hudson, Rocket Records new group, who will be making their prime-time debut sometime before the Summer. Other groups that should benefit from the on-going T.V. boom are Hawkwind, Natt, Bumpo and another new ensemble, the Space Rangers.

RON BARON'S

BEST OF THE NEW-IES:

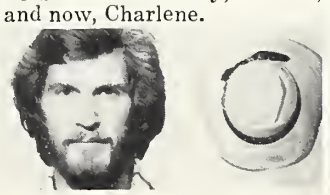
BEST NEW GROUP—Hodges, James & Smith. A girls trio, unlike past pastiches who have already mesmerized audiences this year and should mesmerize the charts next year. 20th Century recently released their first album.

Hodges, James & Smith

BEST NEW MALE ARTIST—Craig Doerge. Keyboardist with The Section made his impressive LP debut this year. Predict hit singles from him in '74 and a successful concert tour. Keep an eye on the Columbia artist.

Motown Merchandising A New Diana

BEST NEW FEMALE ARTIST—Charlene Duncan. Motown will debut her album next month. Producer Frank Wilson has a powerhouse on it. Charlene has a very scintilating voice, that extra something like "bubbles" in champagne. Motown knows how to merchandise "distinctive" voices like Smokey, Diana, Michael, and now, Charlene.

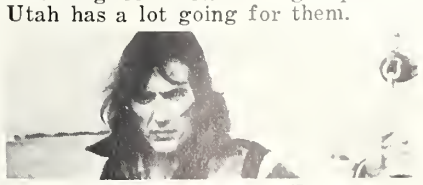


Craig Doerge

ELIOT SEKULAR'S

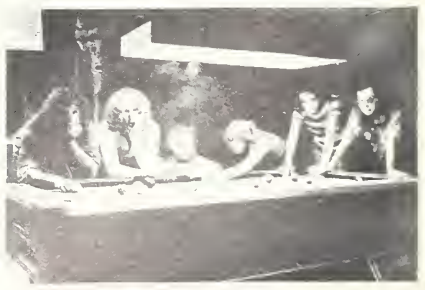
BEST OF THE NEW-IES:

BEST NEW GROUP—Steely Dan. Twice now they have been chosen by Cash Box as being amongst the best new vocal groups. Besides enjoying a perpetual youth, the group has had the dubious satisfaction of following a commercial success with the kind of really good album that just doesn't sell. The band is in the studio again, though, and they just might do it again. Another group deserving a mention is Natty Bumpo, although yet to attain fame, fortune or even a recording contract. This group from Utah has a lot going for them.



Thomas Jefferson Kaye

BEST NEW MALE ARTIST—Thomas Jefferson Kaye, whose first album had everything: brilliant production, good material and an interesting vocal style. The problem, as with so many other fine new artists, was nobody bought it.



Steely Dan

BEST NEW FEMALE ARTIST—Ann Peebles. While she is not exactly a newcomer Ann's first two Hi albums served as a prelude to her "I Can't Stand The Rain" success. A new LP, produced by Willie Mitchell, which will contain that single, is scheduled for January release.

Ann Peebl

MICHEL AND MARY — THE SEARCH IS OVER — Between shows at Jimmy's, Bell artists Michel Legrand and Mary Stuart go over songs they are writing together. Ms. Stuart, already one of television's biggest stars, is making her record debut on Bell with her album "Mary Stuart" and newly released single, "Don't Look Back". One of the greats of the music business as both composer and performer, Michel Legrand's current jazz stint at Jimmy's has played to rave reviews and star-studded audiences.'

Col, Fairchild SQ Circuit Tie

NEW YORK — Columbia Records has announced that Fairchild Semiconductor, a leading manufacturer of integrated circuits, will produce the full range of SQ ICs for world-wide distribution to members of the SQ Family of audio manufacturers. The Fairchild SQ ICs are expected to make their commercial debut in 1974.

Fairchild Semiconductor, headquartered in Mountain View, California, will be the third major IC manufacturer ot introduce SQ ICs. Motorola Semiconductor also manufacturers and markets the three SQ ICs and is expected to begin shipping the logic system in January. Heretofore, only the Motorola matrix was available. Sony Corporation has also developed a full complement of SQ ICs.

ASR Retains Tara Intl.

NEW YORK — ASR Enterprises has been retained by Tara International, Inc. to handle all public relations for the company. Al Ross will supervise the account announced Tara president Richard L. Broderick.

Capitol Greeting '74 With 9 LP's

HOLLYWOOD — New albums by Anne Murray and Leo Kottke, collections by Lettermen, Linda Ronstadt, Roy Clark and seven country artists, along with debut albums by Tavares and Gangsters of Love and the re-release of Jesse Colin Young's first album make up Capitol's January release.

Songstress Anne Murray's seventh album is "Love Song", named after and containing her latest hit single. "Ice Water" is guitarist Leo Kottke's fourth LP for Capitol.

According to Brown Meggs, CRI exec v.p., January is Lettermen Month at Capitol and a big part of the celebration is "Lettermen—All-Time Greatest Hits", which collects ten of the trio's best-selling singles. Classic performances by Linda Ronstadt are brought together on "A Different Drum." Similarly, "Entertainer of the Year" rounds up prime material by country singer and banjo picker Roy Clark. "Bakersfield, Nashville West" is a country anthology that dishes up top performances by Buck Owens, Freddie Hart, Susan Raye, Buddy Alan, David Frizzell, Lawanda Lindsey and Tony Booth.

The debut album by the soul group Tavares, "Check It Out," is named after their initial (and hit) single. "Gangsters of Love" is the first LP by the eight-man group of the same name. And rounding out the release is an early glimpse (1964) of Jesse Colin Young. Title of the album, released in its original cover, is "The Soul of a City Boy."

Kenton's Firm To Dist. His New LP

NEW YORK — Stan Kenton's new album, "7.5 On The Richter Scale," will be distributed by mail through the artist's own Creative World label.

In a departure from the usual Kenton practice of avoiding pop music, the new album features semi-rock tunes wheih have gained popularity elsewhere. Paul McCartney's "Live and Let Die", as arranged by Bob Curnow, is on the LP as is "2002-Zarathustrevisited" and the love theme from "The Godfather," arranged by Dale Devoe.

There are two new compositions by Gene Roland: "Country Cousin" and "Blue Gene", and unusual arrangement of "It's Not Easy Bein' Green from Sesame Street, and a rare Kenton piano solo on "Body and Soul".

Album is available through Creative World, P.O. Box 35216, Los Angeles, Calif. 90035, for $5.50.

Letterman Month Due In January

HOLLYWOOD — In conjunction with the release of their "All-Time Greatest Hits" LP, January will be "Lettermen Month" at Capitol Records. According to Don Zimmerman, CRI vice president, sales and merchandising, the campaign will feature a comprehensive marketing and promotional program geared to spotlight the trio and the album, which includes such best-selling Lettermen performances as "When I Fall in Love," "Theme From a Summer Place," "Hurt So Bad," and the medley "Going Out Of My Head/-Can't Take My Eyes Off Of You."

Recipients of four RIAA certified "gold" album awards, Lettermen (Tony Butala, Jim Pike and Gary Pike) will launch their "All-Time Greatest Hits" with a third consecutive annual tour of Japan.

Morath LP Set For Jan.

NEW YORK — Vanguard Records has announced that Max Morath's new LP, "The World of Scott Joplin" will be released in January. The album will include six Joplin rags and works of those influenced by Joplin. Morath, himself, will be represented by two of his own Joplin-influenced compositions: "One For Amelia" (dedicated to ragtimer Joseph Lamb's widow) and "Golden Hours". Morath currently has a Vanguard double album in release, "The Best of Scott Joplin and Other Ragtime Classics".

'ALL AMERICAN BOY' HITS THE BIGTIME—"All American Boy," Rick Derringer's solo debut LP (the first on Steve Paul's Blue Sky Records, distributed by CBS) is the subject of a massive promotion and merchandising campaign in the west coast that will feature tee-shirts, windbreaker jackets, football jerseys, baseball cards with Rick's picture, toy derringers, and other items. Derringer, who had a number 1 hit ("Hang On Sloopy") with the McCoys, this year produced the Edgar Winter Group's million unit selling LP, "They Only Come Out At Night," which includes the hit singles, "Frankenstein," "Free Ride," and "Hangin' Around." He has also joined Winter's band as lead guitarist. The entire campaign is under the direction of Bud O'Shea regional promotion manager of Epic and CBS custom labels.

New 8-Tracks From Ampex

NEW YORK — Shad Helmstetter, national sales manager, Ampex magnetic tape division, announced that a new studio quality eight-track cartridge using professional mastering tape has been placed on the consumer market by Ampex Corporation.

The latest Ampex entry into the consumer blank tape marketplace is the 20/20+ eight-track cartridge. The new cartridge uses the same coated magnetic tape developed by Ampex for use in professional recording studios.

Helmstetter said the 20/20+ eight-track cartridge was developed as the result of public acceptance of the 20/20+ cassette introduced last spring.

"The 20/20+ eight-track cartridge and the cassette are designed for the high-end tape user," Helmstetter said. "Ampex testing shows the eight-track cartridge and cassett tapes match or exceed the performance of the most sophisticated recording equipment available to the consumer today."

The coating used for the cartridge and the cassette produces a refined playing surface. The smoothness permits closer head to tape contact and fewer dropouts than previous eight-track cartridge and cassette bland tapes.

Ampex 20/20+ cartridges are available in both single album, 42-minute and double album, 84-minute lengths. Suggested retail prices are $2.99 and $3.99.

In addition to the top-of-the-line 20/20+ eight-track cartridges and cassettes, Ampex markets the 381 Series of general purpose eight-track tapes, the 370 Series "Cleanest Sound Around" cassettes, the 350 Series of youth-oriented cassettes and the LNP series of open reel studio recording tapes.

An eight-page brochure detailing features and specifications of the complete line of Ampex consumer blank recording tapes is abailable. Request brochure number T973.

Polish Rock Star Arrives In U.S.; CBS Int'l Host

NEW YORK — A story five years long and stretched across two continents is drawing to a conclusion as Czeslaw Neimen, leading Polish singer and a major Eastern European rock artist meets with U.S. lyricists here this month.

Five years ago CBS International vp Sol Rabinowitz was overwhelmed by Niemen's performance at MIDEM. Though he lost track of the artist, Rabinowitz did not forget him. Some two years later, he learned that Niemen had recorded English and Italian versions of one of his original songs for the CBS Italian label. At this time, Rabinowitz was instrumental in Niemen being seriously considered by Columbia as the David Clayton Thomas replacement for BS&T. Niemen slipped away once again, however, but was recently signed to the CBS German label and has released three lps for them.

At this point Rabinowitz decided not to take any more chances. He has brought Niemen to the U.S. to explore the possibilities of recording him here, and has arranged for him to meet with top American lyricists to write English lyrics to his songs.

CMA Pays Tribute To President Nixon

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The Country Music Association took Country Music to the White House Friday, December 14, when special recognition was extended to Country Music fan, Richard Nixon.

Wesley Rose, president of CMA, said, "Nixon has lent prestige to Country Music by including it on the entertainment schedule at official White House functions during the past few years. Country artists appearing at the White House have included: Roy Acuff, Glen Campbell, Johnny Cash, Merle Haggard and The Osborne Brothers. Also, President Nixon has given national attention to Country Music by proclaming "October is Country Music Month" for the past four years, the first President to recognize Country Music in this manner."

Wanting to give a special "Thank You" to the President for his recognition of Country Music and being a music industry organization, the CMA Board of Directors decided on a musical-spoken tribute. A special committee was set up to guide this project under the direction of CMA's Harold Hitt, Ted Harris and Bob Tubert.

Over two years were spent researching the speeches of President Nixon. Each excerpt was narrated by Tex Ritter featuring recordings by Johnny Cash, Charlie McCoy, Bill Anderson, Tex Ritter, Loretta Lynn, Stonewall Jackson, Henson Cargill, Johnny Horton, Billy Mize, Merle Haggard, Jerry Reed, Charley Pride, Glen Campbell, Red Foley and Frankie Miller. This album acknowledges the President's vital force in the American lifestyle.

Internationally known Country Music spokesman, Tex Ritter, presented the special tribute to the President. The unique album, in an ornate hand-tooled leather case, is entitled, "Thank You, Mr. President".

On hand for the presentation were CMA's President Wesley Rose, CMA' Executive Director Jo Walker, Tex Ritter, Bob Tubert, Bill Hudson and Dick Frank.

This unique album has only one duplicate which will be housed in the Country Music Hall of Fame in Nashville.

Pictured (l. to r.) are: Tex Ritter, Richard Nixon, and Wesley Rose.

Country Artist of the Week:

BOBBY LEWIS

"Ace Of Music"—Bobby Lewis, Ace Of Hearts recording star, is the only country artist who plays the lute. Considering that this instrument is considerably older than the guitar, and that it has always been used to accompany the telling or singing of stories it is surprising. But even tho he is a country artist with a lifelong sincere love of country music, his handling of country tunes often gets enthusiastic reception from pop music fans. Bobby's hits include such top 10 singles as "From Heaven To Heartache," "How Long Has It Been," and "Love Me And Make It All Better". Bobby also scores heavily in album sales. Among his highly successful albums are "Little Man With A Big Heart" "World Of Love," "How Long Has It Been" and "From Heaven To Heartache."

A native of Lincoln's birthplace, Hodgenville, Kentucky, Bobby has become a world-wide country muisc ambassador, having made appearances which include Japan, Thailand, Hawaii, Germany, France, Italy and Belgium. He has also made numerous guest appearances on the Grand Ole Opry and has appeared on all the major syndicated shows.

Bobby Lewis' current chart climbing single is "Too Many Memories" with an album of the same title. Earl Richards directs all production, with Atlas Artists Bureau, Inc. handling all booking. Bobby writes exclusively for Golden Horn Music.

Overstreet Plays Las Vegas Hacienda

HOLLYWOOD — Tommy Overstreet and the Nashville Express are currently headlining the first all country show at the Hacienda in Las Vegas. The popularity of country music has induced the Hacienda to inaugurate their first all country policy Overstreet's niece, Susan St. Marie, completes the cast of country performers. Overstreet, a performer in the United States is tops in South Africa. He leaves soon after his Vegas gig for a tour of South Africa where he will pick up his gold record for the hit single, "Heaven Is My Woman's Love."

Lovullo Produces CBS 'Celebration'

HOLLYWOOD — "Hee Haw" producer Sam Lovullo has returned to his desk in Los Angeles following production last week of a CBS TV special entitled "Celebration."

The Toronto-based production stars Tommy Ambrose, guest stars Barbara Fairchild and the Oak Ridge Boys and is set for CBC airing in March. Described as a "rock gospel singing show with the accent on youth, vitality, fun and entertainment," Ambrose summed it up as "an entertainment show with thought provoking content. We interview people on the streets from all walks of life, he gets a chance to express his views and it's then exemplified with music."

Produced as a special with an aim toward a weekly series, the "Celebration" hour was produced by Lovullo and directed by Emmy Award winner ("Julie Andrews' Hour") Bill Davis. Stateside distribution for the special is owned by Luvollo and Davis.

Jack & Misty Tape TV Shows

NASHVILLE — Jack Blanchard and Misty Morgan are now taping a syndicated TV Show, originating from Orlando, Florida. Consisting of 39 half hour shows, the series will be called "Changing Times" featuring a then and now theme and will be built around a night club type setting. The shows will be sprinkled with plenty of comedy reflecting the talents of Misty and Jack and will be taped before a live audience.

With a mid-January completion date, the shows are being produced by Sunworld Broadcasting president Earl Boyles and will feature top artists of the "50's".

Jack and Misty, who record for Epic Records write and produce their own material and are best remembered for their "Tennessee Bird Walk".

COUNTRY IS OUR CUP OF TEA—When a group of RCA Records' country artists headed by Chet Atkins, recently made a concert tour of England, the English Country Music Association used the occasion to honor the contingent, as the following photos demonstrate. Top left, Charley Pride was voted American Male Singer of the Year and his award was received on his behalf by RCA's national sales manager Brian Hall, from Chet Atkins; Bottom left, Dottie West was there in person to receive her award as American Female Singer of the Year from Chet Atkins; Top right, Chet Atkins receives a special award for his services to country music, presented by CMA UK and handed over by British Country music producer Ian Grant; Bottom right, RCA UK was voted Record Company of the Year for the second consecutive year and the award was received from Tompall Glaser by RCA's marketing manager Geoff Hannington.

Picks of the Week

MEL TILLIS & THE STATESIDERS (MGM 14689)
Midnight, Me And The Blues (2:46) (Sawgrass, BMI—Jerry House)
A mildly up-tempo easy paced ballad, Mel's sure going to hit with this easy listenin' mellow tune. This tune is blues country style, and Mel and the Statesiders carry it off par excellance. The vocal is rich, the harmony fine, and the instrumentation rounds out the tune. Flip: No info. available.

THE STATLER BROTHERS (Mercury 73448)
Whatever Happened To Randolph Scott (1:52) (American Cowboy, BMI—H. Reid —D. Reid)
Culled from the Statler's "Carry Me Back" LP, this lighthearted song asks what ever happened to the old days when everything in the movies wasn't always oriented towards sex. The Statler's carry this off with a bouncy up-tempo song that is just plain fun to listen to. This record will get immediate response for the famous quartette. Flip: The Strand (3:45) (Amercan Cowboy, BMI—L. DeWitt)

TROY SEALS (Atlantic 4013)
You Can't Judge A Book By The Cover (2:20) (Arc, BMI—W. Dixon)
Troy has a great rocking country tune on his hands that is destined to be a hit. With an infectious rhythm it immediately captures the listenes's ear. There is some great guitar and fiddle work to back Troy's great vocal style. This record should get immediate response. Filp: Star Of The Bar (2:36) (Danor, BMI—Troy Seals—Jo Ann Campbell)

COUNTRY LIMITED (Granite 502)
Help (1:56) (Maclean, BMI—John Lennon-Paul McCartney)
The Beatles bluegrass style. Sound strange? Not really, not when your dealing with the professionalism and versatility of a group like Country Limited. They carry this tune off with a supurb vocal and most skillful banjo and guitar work. These boys really do the song justice and should get some chart action. Flip: A Hard Day's Night (2:27) (Maclean, BMI—John Lennon—Paul MaCartney)

WYATT WEBB (Plantation 108)
Daddy Was A Carpenter (3:01) (Dunbar—Shelby Singleton, BMI—Glen Goza)
Beginning with a most haunting melody, this new record by Wyatt clearly demonstrates his keen vocal capacity and he has a quality to his voice that sounds clearly like Johnny Cash. The lyric tells the story of a father who built a life for his wife and six kids. The simplicity of the lyric marks the appeal. There are fine background vocals and great instrumentation. Flip: No info. available.

WWVA's 'Jamboree' From Moundsville

WHEELING — For the third consecutive year, Screen Gems' radio station WWVA (Wheeling, W. Va.) will broadcast its Saturday night country music show, "Jamboree U.S.A.," live from the W. Va. Maximum Security Prison at Moundsville on Saturday evening, December 23rd, during the Christmas weekend. The announcement of W. Va. Governor Arch A. Moore Jr.'s invitation was made by J. Ross Felton, general manager of WWVA, and Glenn Reeves, director of "Jamboree U.S.A."

Regular 7:30 and 10:00 P.M. "Jamboree" performances will be held at the Capitol Music Hall in accordance with the show's 41-year-old tradition of live weekly performances at its production center. However, 50,000 watt WWVA will broadcast the early show direct from the prison to listeners in 22 states and six Canadian provinces.

Acts will be rotated by car between the two locations, which are fifteen miles apart. Because Moundsville is a maximum security prison, each artist will be subject to a thorough search on entering the prison. The show will be performed under armed guard.

In extending his invitation, Governor Moore said, "The annual 'Jamboree' performance has become an integral part of our Christmas tradition, and a highlight of the holiday for the men." He extended thanks to Felton, Reeves, and Emil Mogul, executive vice president of Screen Gems Radio Stations Inc., a division of Columbia Pictures Industries, Inc., for making the show possible.

Felton said that, as in the past, numerous performers have expressed their eagerness to appear on the special program. The bill includes Les Seavers, Junior Norman, Frank Necessary and the Stone Mountain Boys, Crazy Elmer, Lee Moore, Kenny Roberts, Bob Gallion, Patti Powell, Karen McKenzie, The Heckels, and the Country Roads Staff Band.

Recently appointed Warden of the prison, Donald Borden Kircher has also announced a family holiday visiting rights program, a first for the state and quite possibly the nation, earlier in the day. Despite the fact that the prison was the scene of a riot earlier this year, Warden Kircher has invited wives, parents, and children of all prisoners, including those in maximum security interment, for a three-hour visit and luncheon. All six hundred prisoners, are expected to attend the afternoon event as well as the evening "Jamboree" performance.

"Jamboree's" initial visit, in 1971, marked the first time live entertainment had appeared at Moundsville in six years and the first time "Jamboree" had ever been broadcast from outside the WWVA production center.

The temporary stage facilities for the performers will have been set up by inmate carpenters, electricians and grips. IA union members will complete the task.

Clark Is Honored

NASHVILLE — The American guild of Variety Artists awarded Roy Clark Country and Western Star of the Year. Clark already holds the distinction of this years Country Music Association's Entertainer of the Year and the Academy of Country and Western Music's Entertainer and TV Personality of the Year. The AGVA Award will be presented to Clark on the ninety minute special "Entertainer of the Year" Awards, January 26th on national television.

Roy Clark returns to the Frontier Hotel in Las Vegas January 2nd for three weeks.

Acuff Holds Studio Session

NASHVILLE — For the first time in over a year and a half, the "King Of Country Music", Roy Acuff, held a recording session at Hickory Records.

Roy's last recording efforts went into the gold album "Will The Circle Be Unbroken", a collaboration of country performers, with songs and album artwork justifying it's becoming a collector's item.

The session was a "first" for Roy in that it was the first time his son, Roy Acuff, Jr. joined him in recording, the first time he used primarily studio musicians rather than his band, and the first time he sprinkled a variety of newer, more folk/country flavored music into his repertoire.

Roy got together with backup singers Roy, Jr., who is also a singer and songwriter, Eddy Raven writer and ABC Records artist (some of the songs used on the session were written by Eddy), Hugh King, Hickory recording artist, Mac Allen, operations manager at station KIKK, Houston, Texas, and of course, "Bashful Brother Oswald."

Peer Southern Appts McCuen

NASHVILLE — Mrs. Monique I. Peer, president of the Peer Southern Organization, one of the largest music publishing firms, has announced the appointment of Brad McCuen to the firm's Nashville office.

McCuen, who until recently was president of Mega Records served for many years in various executive capacities with RCA.

Brad will report to Roy Horton, national director of Peer Southern's country and blues divisions and will concentrate on acquiring new material and getting it recorded for the firm.

McCuen will also retain his interests in several firms in which he is involved but his primary activities will be devoted to the Peer Southern Organization.

Horton will continue to devote much of his time promoting and sustaining top action on the firm's standards and catalog activity and will work closely with McCuen on all new material.

GMA Meeting

NASHVILLE — For the first time in the history of the Gospel Music Association, members of the board of directors will hold their January quarterly meeting in a city other than Nashville.

The meeting is scheduled January 7-8 in Los Angeles at the Disneyland Hotel, according to Brock Speer, president. Committee meetings will be held the first day and the full board will meet the second day.

In the past, all board meetings have been held in Nashville.

The purpose in the change is twofold. One being to give recognition to the growth of gospel music on the West coast, and the other to give a wider scope to the activities of GMA, so people will not think it is just a Nashville organization.

There also are plans to have a gospel music show case on the West Coast in conjunction with the board meeting for people in the entertainment business and the news media.

Hook Takes Train

HOLLYWOOD — Dr. Hook and the Medicine Show have probably become the first country-rock group to use Amtrak, in an effort to help the energy crisis, and overcome any gasoline shortage.

The Columbia Records band, on tour of the United States, booked Amtrak from San Francisco to Los Angeles for a concert date at Pepperdine College.

"We got the idea from the European railroads," said singer Ray Sawyer. "Last summer we used the boat train to Holland, and also to Paris. We figured it would be a big kick, and helpful if we used Amtrak here."

Sawyer and manager Ron Haffkine said the band would use rail facilities whenever and wherever possible on their current tour.

CashBox Country Roundup

Don Adams says, "I've Already Stayed To Long"—G. Hill and Company has moved into their own building located at 1206 17th Ave. South Nashville, Tennessee 37212 new phone is 297-5386.

Jimmy Null has recovered from back surgery and is back raring to go. Jimmy is lead singer and bass player with the Nashville Bridge. The Bridge has just released a new single on Gusto Records titled "Mama's Waitin". The preceeding single, "Love Don't Last Long" is presently breaking into the pop field.

Bob Luman and Josie Brown slated to entertain at Kustom Electronic's annual party in Chanute, Kansas. All of Kustom's employees and associates as well as some of the best known names in the music industry from all over the country will be attending. Danny Davis & The Nashville Brass, Ronnie Prophet. and Hank Williams Jr. are among artists that have entertained in the past.

Attendance figures released by Opryland manager Mike Downs show that in excess of 1.7 million persons visited the entertainment center in Nashville during the 1973 season. This represents a 22% increase over the previous year's attendance and surpasses the projected figure for 1973. In releasing the figures, Downs further states that about 70% of the park visitors came from states other than Tennessee. Now closed for the winter months, Opryland will again begin operating March 16, 1974 for weekend Opry performances and on Memorial Day, April 3, 1974 will be open on a seven-day-a-week basis.

Charlie Rich has received a Gold record for his Epic album, "Behind Closed Doors". This certification follows closely the Gold Record he received for the single of the same title in September of 1973.

Country Eddie Hill appeared on Cathy Clayton's "Noon-Time Nashville" syndicated radio show and was flooded with phone calls by friends happy to hear from him again.

Johnny Russell has cut a series of commercials at the House of Cash for Big Red Tobacco and the New York based firm of D'Arcy, MacManus and Masius, with Dick Feller producing.

Quinnie Acuff, president of A.Q. Talent has signed an exclusive booking contract with Hee Haw's big one, Junior Samples.

Monument recording artist Boots Randolph, internationally known as the Yakety Sax specialist, will be the featured entertainer during the halftime show at the annual Gator Bowl football game in Jacksonville, Florida Saturday night, December 29. Randolph will be backed by his regular nightclub group, guitarist Jimmy Wilkerson, bass player Johnny Johnson, drummer Jerry White and pianist Johnny Propst and the University of Tennessee's "Pride of the Southland Marching Band."

"Officials were so impressed with the last network performance by Danny Davis that I've been instructed to allow at least 10 minutes for material by him and The Nashville Brass", contends Chet Hagen, who's working on the script that belongs to next year's "Country Music Hit Parade". Show is scheduled to be taped in Nashville January 23-24 and will air over CBS-TV Feb. 4.

The Shorty Lavender Agency has arranged for 3 of its acts to make appearances on the Dean Martin TV Show. David Houston taped his segment in Nashville, December 12. Jeanne Pruett and Johnny Paycheck will be performing on 3 shows, to be taped in Los Angeles, December 17-18-19.

George & Tammy's "We're Gonna Hold On" album contains a clever cut written by word wizard Bobby Braddock, which is to be especially enjoyed by those on the mature side of 40. Song is titled "We're Not The Jet Set."

Kaye Bumbalough has joined the talent agency action at Shorty Lavender's shop as secretary to vice president John McMeen.

Country music's lady champ, Tammy Wynette, serves as this year's Music Ambassador for the Christmas Seal Campaign of the American Lung Association and its more than 200 affiliated associations throughout the U.S.

Songwriter, Eddie Miller decided that daughter Pam Miller should be writing more songs so to eliminate any excuses, Eddie bought her a piano for her birthday. Also included was a writing pad and pencil. Pam Miller's latest MGM record is "Sunday Morning Love".

Stella Parton, was in Sand Mountain, Georgia with the Bob Harrington (Bourbon Street's Preacherman) Crusade where they filled the football stadium with 8,000 enthusiastic people. Stella said "with the stars shining bright, I just stood there and sang with God and everybody listening." Stella has disbanded her group and is going as a single. She has taped the Wilburn Brothers Show, appeared on the Gospel Opry, and made an appearance with the singing Rambo's. And, she has inked a personal management contract with Ron Woolman of the Woolman Agency who has big plans for her.

Nashville's Ronnie Prophet has just returned from Bakersfield, California where he participated in Buck Owens 3rd Invitational Golf Tournament. The Tournament raised $50,000 this year (last year $22,500) for the Kern Radiation Oncology Center for the tretment of cancer.

Truck driving Dave Dudley recently renewed his contract with Mack Trucks. Dave, famous for his truck driving tunes, tapes commercials for Mack.

Jimmy C. Newman has cut the English version of his song "Lache Pas La Patate" on the La Louisianne label which has been getting heavy play in Louisiana, Texas and other areas. The English version, "Potato Song", is being distributed nationally.

Ace Hearts artist Bobby Lewis on extended tour which finds him in Key West, Florida on Christmas Day.

UA Strengthens Country Roster

NASHVILLE — Under the leadership of a&r chieftan, Kelso Herston, and sales & promotion chieftan. Lynn Shults, the Nashville office of United Artists Records has, during the last quarter of 1973, strengthened the label's artist roster.

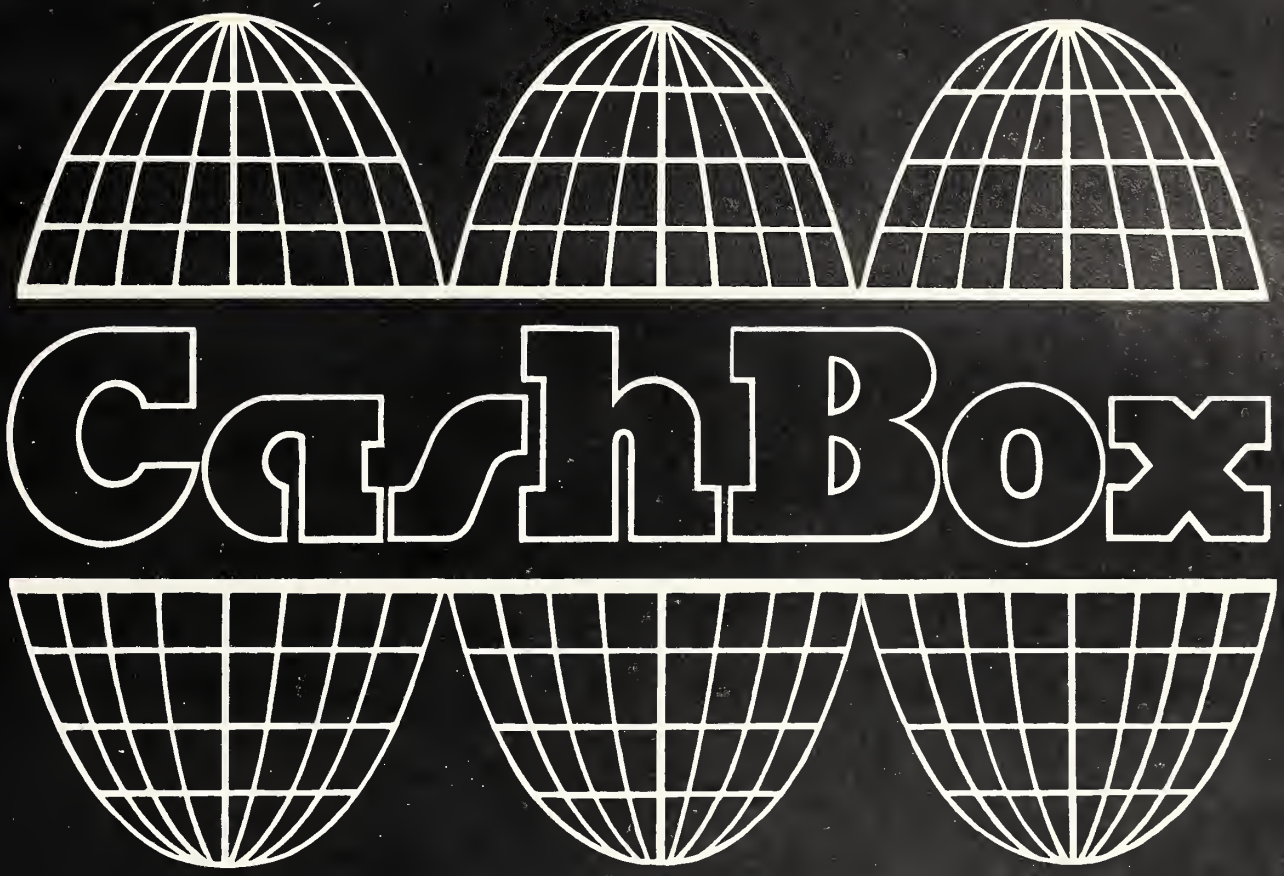
Initial addition was Jean Shepard who kicked the UA country drive off to a most impressive start via the number one single, "Slippin' Away", and is currently on the charts with "Come On Phone".

Next UA newcomer was Charlie Louvin, whose just-issued "You're My Wife, She's My Woman" 45 rpm platter has kicked off to an impressive beginning via airplay and sales.

Slim Whitman, a proven star of major caliber, both stateside and internationally, then re-inked an exclusive long-term UA pact. This was most recently followed by Johnny Darrell rejoining United Artists after a five year hiatus during which he was a resident of the nation's C&W charts.

Newest member of the UA Nashville family is Crystal Gayle, Loretta Lynn's younger sister.

Herston and Shults are predicting the biggest year in its history for United Artist Records, through its solid roster of established stars and the recent impressive additions, with several more key signings due in the immediate future.



THE INTERNATIONAL SCENE 1973

Great Britain—1973 In Review

1973 has been a strange year as far as charts are concerned. Hard rockers have been in competition with soft balladeers and one never knew if it would be David Bowie or Perry Como or Slade or Peters and Lee or The Sweet or Al Martino leading the field. Towards the end of the year we even had a TV theme "Eye Level" by The Simon Park Orchestra right at the No. 1 position. Once more it has not been a very good year for the distaff side of the music talent except for Suzi Quatro who unleashed her lungs on a very appreciative audience. The superstars of yesteryear i.e. David Cassidy, Gilbert O'Sullivan, Elton John, Cliff Richard have all survived and been joined by David Bowie, Wizzard and Gary Glitter. Executive moves have been kept to a minimum the main changes being that Dick Asher came in from America to head up the CBS British operation and Bob Montgomery was named managing director of Chappell & Co. Perhaps one of the major occurrences of the year was the break-up of WEA into four separate companies and the resignation of Ian Ralfini who set up Warner/Reprise in the U.K. four years previous. Another major happening was the transfer of MCA distribution from Decca—after fourty years—to EMI and the break up of the London office. EMI celebrated their 75th anniversary and it was the year of the EMI logo. Commercial radio came to Britain via Capital Radio and London Broadcasting Company—the latter primarily a news station. A monthly review of the year is as follows:

JANUARY
EMI and Thomson International join forces to form new record company in Thailand—EMI Thailand Ltd. . . . Bandleader Syd Lawrence re-signs with Phonogram for further four years . . . Youngblood renew agreement with Polydor Sweden . . . Track Records resign with Polydor for further three years . . . Les Tomlin joins DJM Records from Pye and Eddie Foster promoted to International Sales Manager . . . Don Wardell leaves Decca to head up U.S. office of Jonathan King's U.K. Records . . . EMI launches it's EMI label . . . Youngblood's Miki Dallon launches new Birth label . . . Dave Edmunds forms own Rockfield label and has instant hit with "Baby I Love You" . . . RCA having blockbuster hit with The Sweet's "Blockbuster" . . . Of course, no January complete without MIDEM.

FEBRUARY
Contempo label launched purely for soul music . . . Precision Tapes enters educational field . . . Coin machine industry well taken care of at Alexandria Palace and the Amusement Trades Exhibition . . . Bob Montgomery appointed managing director of Chappells . . . Gaff Management launch GM Records with Brian Hutch as general manager . . . Music Publishers Association host special luncheon for Ray Conniff . . . Emerson Lake and Palmer form own Manticore label with distribution through Island . . . Colin Hadley resigns from Pye to set up own marketing consultancy firm, McKinley Marketing . . . general commercial radio station goes to Capital Radio with Richard Attenborough as Chairman . . . Larry Yaskiel leaves A & M to join Warner Bros. U.S., as International Director of A & R . . . CBS appoint Clive Selwood as general manager, marketing . . . Dan Loggins joins CBS as a & r manager . . . Decca Records profits for six months ending September 1972 £3.9 million as against £1.25 million previous six months period.

MARCH
Carlin's Freddy Bienstock and Paul Rich throw lavish party for the music industry to celebrate six successive years as Britain's top publisher . . . David English made director of Robert Stigwood Organisation . . . Hal Shaper of Sparta Music acquires rights to all Judge Dread material . . . Robbins Music Alan Holmes retires after twenty three years with the firm . . . David Cassidy arrives for European tour . . . Rex Oldfield joins CBS as manager, special projects . . . Good profit figures from EMI for half year to 31st December 1972 . . . Ditto Robert Stigwood Organization . . . John Mair leaves Phonogram for A & M Records . . . Don Dive leaves Decca to join Chappells as public relations officer . . . EMI readying for 75th Anniversary celebrations . . . "Power To All Our Friends" sung by Cliff Richard for Eurovision . . . Songwriters/producers Chris Arnold, David Martin and Geoff Morrow launch own Ammo label . . . Ron White, Executive Director of Affiliated Music

Carlin and Schroeder Music Finish 1 & 2 In Great Britain's Publisher Derby

CARLIN MUSIC

Carlin Music has emerged as Britain's Top Publisher of the Year in the Cash Box Year End Awards—an accolade which comes as no surprise either to Carlin Music or the music business as they have been voted Top Publisher in the U.K. for the past seven years. Carlin started life as Aberbach Music until Freddy Bienstock purchased the London office in 1966 whilst still in the employ of Hill and Range. In 1970 he set up a U.S. office under the name of Carbert Music and formed an association with many of the day's top writers and producers. Carlin's London office is in the professional hands of Paul Rich who joined the firm in 1957 after a successful career as a singer. In 1971 Paul Rich was named Vice President of the company and he has been responsible for acquiring much of the talent and copyrights which come under the Carlin banner. He spends an average of two months a year in the States acquiring American catalogues for his English company. Carlin's share of the U.K. market is phenomenal and a week never goes by without a Carlin Music copyright somewhere in the charts.

SCHROEDER MUSIC

A. Schroeder Music was formed in 1960 by Aaron Schroeder who was already well known for his songwriting activities having had his songs recorded by top stars such as Frank Sinatra, Perry Como, Nat King Cole, Tony Bennett and, of course, Elvis Presley's "It's Now Or Never." Until 1965 his copyrights were handled in Britain by Sydney Bron Music Company but in that year he opened his own London office with his own staff. In the past twelve years he has put together a major music orientated combine of wholly owned companies throughout the world under the Aaron Schroeder umbrella. Among the talent signed to the American company are Barry White and Love Unlimited and Tony Macaulay and John MacLeod are among the many writers who have been contracted to London. Among the many hits to their credit Schroeder Music had a resounding international smash with "Tie a Yellow Ribbon Round The Ole Oak Tree" and this together with their other copyrights gives them a worthy place as No. 2 Publisher in the Cash Box Year End awards.

Biographies of Some of Great Britain's Top Stars During 1973

Dawn

[illegible] Tony Orlando, [illegible] and Telma Hopkins have sold over [illegible] million records since forming some three years ago. All three had been in the music business for a few years before forming Dawn, Tony Orlando was general manager of a successful publishing company, working for such groups as James Taylor, Laura Nyro and Blood Sweat and Tears. Telma Hopkins was an original member of the Isaac Hayes back up band Hot Buttered Soul for three years, and both she and Joyce Hopkins did sessions for Motown and Holland-Dozier-and Holland. The girls still sing on sessions, and can be heard on the Dionne Warwicke album. Their first single on Bell Records was "Candida" and became an instant smash on both sides of the water, followed by the phenomenal, three million selling international smash "Knock Three Times."

With all their other activities it was a year before Dawn toured after their

Gilbert O'Sullivan

Raymond Edward O'Sullivan—alias Gilbert O'Sullivan was born in Waterford, Southern Ireland in 1946 and is one of a family of six. In 1960 the family moved to Swindon, England and Gilbert enrolled at the local art college and it was during this period—the Beatles era—that Gilbert began to write songs. His mother bought him a piano but his own special kind of piano playing—thumping—soon relegated the piano plus Gilbert to the garden shed. He then moved to London and began to send tapes of his songs to record companies and disk jockeys in the hope of breaking into show business.

It was Gordon Mills who, on a wet Sunday afternoon, opened a packet of his tapes and became fascinated by the catchy tunes and the lyrics with a difference. He summoned Gilbert from his bedsitter and together they worked on songs. One year later "Nothin' Rhymed" was recorded and Gilbert launched. The mode of dress

Gary Glitter

Gary Glitter has had an unusual road to victory in his 28 years. He's been a singer all his life only gaining recognition in the last eighteen months. He was born in Oxfordshire and entertained the family until his professional entry into show business at the age of fourteen under the name of Paul Raven. He's the first to admit that Paul Raven never achieved the success he would have liked but he enjoyed the era anyway playing in German clubs and making a total of nine singles. It was in 1969 that he met up with manager Mike Leander and when the name of Gary Glitter was born he really became famous. Their first single together "Rock And Roll Part II" took four months to break and when it did it was through the discotheques and night clubs up and down the country where the kids wanted to hear the basic back-to-rock music.

After that followed a string of singles put out by Bell Records, "I Didn't Know I Loved You (Till I Saw

David Bowie

David Bowie started life as David Jones but changed his name to avoid confusion with another David Jones who was about at the time as a member of The Monkees. He formed David Bowie and The Buzz but the group soon disbanded and he formed a mime group Feathers and also became a member of The Lindsay Mime Company. It was Bowie's passion for mime which later helped him form many of his stage presentation ideas and, indeed, it forms much of the substance for his music. His early recordings did not meet with public approval but his association with producer Gus Dudgeon brought about "Space Oddity" and this met with chart success. In 1971 Bowie signed a recording contract with RCA Records and a new album "Hunky Dory" was released and so began the first step towards national recognition.

The next step was to achieve a stage identity and with his rhythm section, Mick Ronson (guitar),

Chuck Berry

Charles Edward Berry was born in St. Louis, Missouri in 1931. His parents sang in the Antioch Baptist Church Choir and his three sisters played piano. He formed his first group in 1952 and it was during a visit to Chicago in 1955 that he met up with Muddy Waters. It was Waters who suggested he should contact Leonard Chess of Chess Records, an invitation which was taken up and he signed a recording contract. His first release was on the Chess label and his first hit was "Maybellene." This instant success was followed by a whole string of hits including "Roll Over Beethoven" and "Rock and Roll Music" both of which were later recorded by The Beatles. "Carol" was a huge success as was "No Particular Place To Go" and many many more. He starred in such Allan Freed rock movies as "Rock, Rock, Rock" and "Go, Johnny Go" and his Newport Jazz Festival performance in 1958 was filmed for the classic documentary "Jazz On a Summer's Day."

Teenagers who weren't even born when Chuck had his first hit surrended to him en masse when "My Ding-a-Ling" was released. It took Britain by storm and was the Christmas Hit of 1972. His lengthy stay in the charts at that time certainly qualifies him for a top place in the Cash Box Singles of the Year award.

Peters and Lee

Lennie Peters and Di Lee have been together professionally for three years and attained a chart smashing single at their very first attempt. Lennie Peters, a stylised pianist/vocalist started his career by playing piano in London East End Pubs. He started to get bookings on cabaret circuits and it was on one of these dates that he first met Di—at that time half of a dancing duo called The Hailey Twins. Since that time they have appeared in night clubs up and down the country and they made their TV debut on the "Opportunity Knocks" discovery programme earlier this year. After just one winning performance on the show they were inundated with recording contracts and eventually signed up with Phonogram and made their first single "Welcome Home" which was issued on the Philips label. This zoomed to the No: 1 position in the charts. Although they have made it with just one single it's taken three years of hard work for Peters and Lee to break through finally into show business. It's been well worth the wait and they now look all set to enjoy a long and fruitful career in the business.

DAVID BOWIE

Woody Woodmansey (drums) and Trevor Bolder (bass) David began to perform as a rock artist around the country and then came the release of "The Rise and Fall of Ziggy Stardust And The Spiders From Mars" which became a huge seller as did the single taken from the album "Starman." The creation of Ziggy Stardust enabled David to bring together many of his diverse schemes, the powerful visual imagery of his costume, the electric nuances of his unhibited choreography allied to the thermatic consistency of his music gave birth to a type of theatrical rock presentation never before experienced. Bowie is a success not only in the U.K. but also in the States both with live shows and record sales. In the U.K. during a twelve week period he registered with no less than five albums in the Top 50 L.P. chart listings—an achievement never before accomplished. His current album "Pin Ups" sold one million copies in the U.K. in one week of release and it also achieved an American Gold in the same period. During the summer Bowie undertook a mammoth eight-week tour of Britain at the end of which he said "never again" although this statement will probably not debar him from any more stage appearances. He is interesting himself in film work and it is in the offing that a new Bowie dimension will be unfolded in the New Year.

GARY GLITTER

You Rock and Roll) topped the charts all over Europe, America, Australia and New Zealand. Then came "Do You Wanna Touch Me (Oh Yeah) with achieved the same success along with "Hello Hello I'm Back Again" and "I'm The Leader of the Gang (I Am)." His latest single "I Love You Love Me Love" although a diversion from the usual Glitter sound being somewhat more ballady, reached No: 1 in Britain within a few days of release. With all this success it's easy to see why Gary Glitter is No: 1 Singles Artist in the Cash Box Year End Poll. His first two albums "Glitter" and "Touch Me" both achieved success in the album charts. In the past eighteen months he has toured Germany, France, Spain, Portugal, Austria, Scandinavia, Belgium, Holland, New Zealand and America. In the U.K. he has performed to over 120,000 people since the release of "Rock And Roll Part II."

GILBERT O'SULLIVAN

chosen by Gilbert for his debut—flannel suit several sizes too small, flat cap and short cropped hair, shocked Mills but Gilbert insisted that if people laughed at him they would also listen to him and he won the day. People, of course, did listen to him and success followed success via his singles "No Matter How I Try"; "Alone Again"; "Ooh Wakka Doo Wakka Day"; "Clair"; "Get Down" and currently "Why Oh Why Oh Why" as well as albums "Back to Front"; "Gilbert Himself"—all of which proved to be instant hits. In 1972 after a holiday the 'Bisto Kid' Gilbert O'Sullivan image changed and the new long haired, trendy Gilbert emerged. His success has not been confined to Britain—the continent and America have fallen under the O'Sullivan spell and he is now a truly international star. He lives very quietly in a detached house in Weybridge, Surrey, near manager Gordon Mills and devotes himself to his writing. He doesn't own a car—he does his shopping from the village on a bicycle. On the subject of his songs he says "My composing is spontaneous and I think it would put me off if I had to put the notes down. The music is inspirational and the lyrics perspirational."

first hit, and when they did it increased further their international stardom. They were already the second biggest singles sellers of the United States without ever making appearances either live or on TV. "Knock Three Times" was followed in this country by "What Are You Doing Sunday," once again topping the charts, and then "Say Has Anybody Seen My Sweet Gypsy Rose." In March of 1973 Bell released "Tie A Yellow Ribbon Round The Ole Oak Tree." It went into the charts on the first week of release and has never been out since. It topped the charts for a number of weeks running on both sides of the Atlantic consecutively and was number one in numerous European countries. With all this success it's easy to see why it's the Cash Box Top Single Of The Year. Both "Tie A Yellow Ribbon" and "Say Has Anybody Seen" were in the charts at the same time in this country. Dawn have toured America, England, Germany, France, Italy, Australia, South America and Japan in the last two years, making two tours of Europe. They were recently voted the most popular group in Italy.

still retaining his managing directorship of Precision Tapes. In recent months Pye has been very successful and have had chart albums via Max Bygraves "Sing Along" series as well as Bygraves version of the oldie "Deck of Cards" single.

At the forty second annual general meeting of EMI Ltd. Chairman Sir Joseph Lockwood told shareholders that the reports and accounts showed significant progress in both sales and profits in all parts of the world for the year ended June, 30 1973—EMI's 75th anniversary year. He said it was particularly encouraging to see major increases in the profits coming from Europe and North America where Capitol Industries Inc. continue to perform extremely well. Sir Joseph commented, "I would also like to say that at our present level of U.K. earnings we are within the limits on profit margins imposed by the existing counter inflationary legislation. In fact the overall profits earned in the first four months of the current financial year are substantially higher than those earned in the corresponding period of last year."

Brian Hutch, who joined G.M. Records as managing director just under a year ago when the company set up in the U.K., is to become managing director of CBS's publishing subsidiary, April Music and March Artists, the company's agency division. This ties in with a general expansion of the March-April operations and Brian will report directly to CBS managing director Dick Asher while Ivan Chandler, general manager of April Music and Dave Woods, general manager of March Artists, will be responsible to Hutch. Before taking up the appointment with GM Brian Hutch spent several successful years with the Warner Group ending up as label manager for the WEA group.

Peter Smits, administrative head of Affiliated Music and Pat Howgill, director and general manager of Affiliated's sheet music sales, have conclued a three-year sheet music deal with Peter Shelley of Magnet Records for the U.K. First number is Alvin Stardust's "My Coo-Ca-Choo" which is heading for the top of the British charts on the Magnet label. Still with Affiliated Music, Fred Marks, international publishing co-ordinator, has conclued a catalogue deal with Castle Music Australia for Magnet and with Ego Musik for Spain and Portugal.

The new double album from "Yes" on Atlantic has become the first LP in Britain to qualify for a gold album on "ship out" sales under regulations introduced by the British Phonographic Industry on April 1. Before a single copy was sold to the public "Tales From Topographic Oceans" sold £150,000 worth of records and tapes at dealer prices, less tax. First time ever that this quantity of dealer sales has been achieved under new BPI qualifications in the U.K.

Stephen Shane, managing director of Cloud One together with general manager Ian Warner recently in New York and now currently in Los Angeles seeking distribution deals for their newly set up Cloud One Records operation as well as seeking American masters.

Quickies: Elton John's DJM album "Don't Shoot Me I'm Only the Piano Player" quaifiled for gold disk in Scandinavia . . . Wizzard's new Harvest single on Harvest must be big Christmas seller with the title "I Wish It Could Be Christmas Every Day" . . . Emerson Lake and Palmer's new film "Brian Salad Surgery" previewed in London to tie in with release of their recently released Island album . . . "Paper Roses" topping Best Selling Sheet Music Lists for Leeds.

Japan—1973 In Review

TOKYO — The prosperity which marked Japan's economy last year has vanished and the country has enjoyed its most prosperous fiscal period during the first half of 1973. However, the material shortage and the petroleum crisis, which hit the world at the beginning of the second half of this year, have temporarily halted the progress, though Japan's big businesses have been able to settle their accounts in good fashion at the end of this year. These settlements have not yet been affected by the energy crisis.

Following the early trend of the country's economy, Japan's record companies have been able to make a profit by settling accounts for the term Apr.-Sept., 1973. Total sales of Japan's fourteen biggest record firms for this period were 55,600,000,000 yen ($190,000,000), about the same as the previous period and 28% more than the same period of 1972. Gross sales for the year period Oct. 1972 to Sept. 1973 were 110,800,000,000 yen ($390,000,000), 23% more than the previous year.

Good sales of Japanese music, both in records and tapes, have been cited as reasons for all fourteen major record companies enjoying a profit jump for the term Apr.-Sept. 1973 over the same term for the previous year.

For the Apr.-Sept., 1973 period, Japanese music outsold Western product 63% to 37% (up from a 59%-41% ratio for the same '72 term), a 2% gain over the previous term. Reasons cited for the increase in sales were an increase in holidays, a decline in the bowling boom, a lowering of record prices, and the availability of stereo and cassette hardware.

Of the fourteen major Japanese record companies, 10 labels (Victor Musical Industries, Toshiba-EMI, Teichiku, Polydor, Tokuma, Nippon-Phonogram, Canyon, Toho, Warner-Pioneer, and Trio) have shown increased sales over the previous term. Among them, Victor Musical Industries made a 10,000,000,000 yen ($36,000,000) recovery since the first half of 1970. The remaining four labels (Nippon Columbia, Crown, CBS-Sony, and King) showed slight losses, but the overall figures reflected an upward trend.

The increasing growth rate of Japanese over Western music has been a noticeable phenomenon in the past few years. Two years ago, record companies which had foreign labels like Toshiba, CBS-Sony, and King had good sales potential and Western music outsold Japanese product 52% to 48%. But after the end of 1971, Japanese music began gaining steadily, keyed by "Enka" (Japan's traditional song). This trend evidenced by the success of "Onna No Michi" (The Way of Women) which has sold over 3,500,000 copies.

Though Japanese songs have of late been outgaining Western music consistently, "Yesterday Once More" (Carpenters), "It Never Rains In Southern California" (Albert Hammond), "You're So Vain" (Carly Simon), "Paroles Paroles" (Dalida and Alain Delon), and "Sing" (Carpenters) were among the biggest Western sellers in Japan.

The total sales of tape by the fourteen major companies has been a significant factor reaching 11,600,000,000 yen ($41,000,000), 10.5% more than the previous term and 30.7% above sales for the same term of the previous year. The factors attributed to the sales increase for tapes are the expulsion of pirate tapes, the lowering of prices, and the overall stability of the market.

Notably, TEAC Co.'s withdrawal from the recording industry during this term came after only three months of operation, the firm being set up in July of this year. It's abolishment was the result of severe industry conditions that prevented expected sales results.

The big concern in Japanese music industry circles is the shortage of raw material, mainly petroleum, which has brought curtailment of production of many records. There is an overall uneasiness in the industry concerning these shortages, reflected by a lack of organization on all levels.

1973 IN REVIEW

The jukebox and amusement machine industry enjoyed one of its most profitable years in recent history during 1973. A combination of brand new machine ideas (e.g. video games and hockey tables), added to the burgeoning drive to boost play pricing to straight quarter play, served up fat bottom line profits for all three segments of the trade.

The significance of video and hockey games in particular is almost impossible to measure. In an industry populated by old timers who contend "nothing's new under the sun," these two new pieces broke onto the market and made nothing but money for the factories, dealers and route operators who had them. Indeed, more factories are now making video games than have ever made any other single game type in the history of the industry, and the essential creative credit for the piece goes to Nolan Bushnell of Atari, Inc. whose "PONG" now takes its place in the industry's hall of fame.

Hockey tables, pioneered by Brunswick Corp. and its "Air Hockey," likewise served up new locations and surplus coinage. A very generous boost to Air Hockey play came from Philadelphia where promotion veteran Al Rodstein staged two giant hockey contests which reminded the trade of that man's efforts on behalf of United's original Shuffle Alley back in 1949-50.

FLIPPER TOURNAMENTS

Flipper games, the traditional mainstay of the trade (alongside of the jukebox) finally figured in tournament play during 1973. An organization formed by Wayne W. Rhodes in Washington D.C. called the International Pinball Assn., promoted pinball tournaments on several occasions, in November, he joined forces with John Bilotta in a movement to boost the concept within the legitimate operating industry. Several secular pinball contests held during 1973 marked up sterling successes, among them Bilotta's effort in Rochester, N.Y. which raised $16,000 for an anti-drug campaign. At year's end, some state associations were contemplating flipper tournaments for 1974.

Play pricing, always a heated issue in the trade, continued its drive to get a better shake for the operator. While little, if anything, was accomplished in lowering the location's commission percentage, many operators began placing pins, shuffles and other staples on a straight quarter vend. Tentative feelers went out by the more courageous operator to see if the public was ready for straight quarter play on the jukebox. Long singles, rare oldies etc. were the openers, with a universal 25¢ music price hoped for down the line on every record. Some Seeburg distributors considering recommending that their buyers program half the box with little LP's and the other with super chart hits, pricing the program at straight 25¢ play.

Little LP's themselves made a startling comeback. Two companies—Gold-Mor Dist. and Little LP's Unlimited—offered excellent merchandise to operators which helped break the industry's "mental block" to this valid music concept. Gold-Mor added to its library of jukebox music with the introduction of its "Select Singles Series" during 1973, which has become a welcome source of rare adult standards for the conscientious record buyers.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

The public image of the industry took a big jump in the right direction during the year thru another oldie of sorts—Wurlitzer's nostalgic reincarnation of the classic JUKEBOX, model 1050. The antique marvel (which is actually a completly re-designed and re-engineered phonograph) made headlines on radio, TV and in the papers and made many good PR points for the industry in general.

THE OVERSEAS MARKET

Overseas buyers absorbed over $92 million in American-made jukeboxes, games and vending machines during 1972, and export houses in the states said trading was good enough that 1973 might possibly reach the $100 million dollar mark when all the figures are in. Most significant event that occurred in the foreign trade during 1973 was the incorporation of a multi-national association into the European Economic Community (EEC) in April. The group, made up largely of presidents of national associations within the community, would represent the industry's interests on the EEC level. (Within England, their operator association considered merging into the Amusement Trades Assn. during 1973 (the latter group being machine manufacturers and distributors best known as sponsors of the A.T.E. show each January.

SEGA Enterprises Ltd., the Japanese manufacturer-distributor-operator conglomerate which had been selling its wares to the states through sales agents, decided to go directly to the distributor during 1973 in its drive to return to the paramount position it has occupied in the amusement-arcade field.

Stateside, expansion of several distributors marked a new trend toward the more sophisticated mode of doing business with operators. Glamorous new quarters were set up for many distribs during the year, including Banner's Pittsburgh complex, Bob Jones' place up in Dedham, Mass., the Northwest Sales outlet in Seattle and Irving Morris Sales in Springfield, N.J. among others. The Gottlieb factory added still another 35,000 sq. ft. of production space to its already huge operation in North Lake, Illinois.

APPOINTMENTS

A number of key trade appointments were made during 1973. Among them: Jack Mitnick to sales coordinator at Allied Leisure Industries, Stan Jarocki to Seeburg vice president for music, George Klersey to manager of Rowe's Central Sales in Texas, Ron Henard to chief at Vending Exchange in Bristol, Va., football hero Lem Barney to Angott Dist., in sales, Bob Breither to Seeburg senior vice president vending, Ron Mielbrecht to promotion at Rowe International, Earl Ramsey to the presidency of Rowe, John Davenport to All-Tech vice presidency, John Nex to Wurlitzer Dist. Corp. in Brookfield, Wis., Tony Yula to sales chief at Irving Morris, Iggy Wolverton and Jan Petterson to Bally directors, Dick Williams to Wurlitzer sales manager, Scott Daddis to presidency of United Billiards, Inc. (with Art Daddis going up to the chairmanship), Jerry Marcus to Rowe vice president. Tony Montgomery to RCA's jukebox product coordinator, Pat Karns to Atari as sales manager, Alan Bruck to vice president at Banner's Philadelphia outlet, Dan Winter to executive vice president at Milwaukee Coin Industries, and Ken Anderson and Fred Pollak to regional sales supervisors for Wurlitzer.

The trade lost some of its finest sons during the year. May we always remember: Advance Automatic's Lou Wolcher, MOA treasurer Bob Walker, Connecticut operator Glen Klopfenstein, Oregon operator Lee Ross, Texas operator Frank Douglas Cocke, Seeburg's Al Gitlitz, MOA director Gil Bailey, A.C.A.'s Francis Carneiro, Len Miller, and a true industry patriarch and co-founder of Chicago Dynamic Industries, Sam Wolberg.

MOA'S 25th ANNIVERSARY

One of the proudest moments during 1973 was MOA's 25th anniversary celebration, held at its trade show during

1973 IN REVIEW

November in Chicago. During that three day event, MOA veteran members combined with new faces in the industry and underscored the broad-based nature of this business: a good place to make a buck and a welcome place for the right newcomer if he's got the grit.

Russ Mawdsley became MOA's new president, succeeding Harlan Wingrave who lead the national group during most of the silver jubilee year. Wingrave's tenure saw the birth of yet three more regional associations: the Washington State Coin Machine Operators Assn. (Al March first president), the California Amusement Assn. (Harris Klein first president), and a New Jersey Assn. (president Pat Storino).

Mawdsley struck a note at his acceptance speech which should bear some fruit during 1974 . . . that is, the call for all three levels of the industry to "cooperate" with each other more rather than pull in separate directions. Indeed, much maneuvering has gone on during 1973 which diverges from standard industry marketing patterns. We speak specifically of several factories looking actively into operating. More distributing companies were also brought out by factories. The most significant moves in that area were Advance Automatic's sale to Bally (San Francisco) and Atlantic New York and Albert Simon, Inc. to Seeburg (New York).

The 1973 MOA Expo itself was one of the grandest the industry ever had. A total of 3,169 tradesters showed up to view over 75 machines and service exhibits and listen to the wisdom of trade leaders speaking at valued seminars. It was interesting to note the copyright situation was essentially the same as it was 25 years ago when (and why) MOA was founded: operators in 1973 still did not have to pay performance royalties on songs to the societies.

Public Relations in general improved greatly for the trade during 1973, thanks largely to newspaper and TV stories secured by operators and distributors. A scattered mention of such favorable items and events has to be headed by Ed Zorinsky's election as Mayor of Omaha, Nebraska, plus probing business articles in such books as Business Week, the increased use of the jukebox and pingame in TV (commercials, and props on sitcom shows), appearances of trade people on TV (e.g. Herb Jones of Bally lecturing America during his stint on the To Tell the Truth show), and many others, from South Dakota's governor acknowledging the value of the industry in his state, down to Mike Munves' Joe Goldsmith discussing flipper games on CBS-TV News.

Indeed, the jukebox and games trade is a proud industry today—not only for those in it but as seen by those outside it. The financial community in particular became extremely interested in the industry after it became public that our machines earn a pretty good buck—and a heck of a lot more than vending machine based on dollar invested.

Clearly, one gigantic boost to collections was the lowering of the legal drinking age to 18 at several states during 1973, including Illinois and Connecticut (the only people who were hurt were those in adjoining states who reaped the 'cross the border' rewards of 18, 19 and 20 year olds looking for a night in the bar).

Clearly, one of the strong reasons financial houses focused eyes on the trade was Bally's dramatic rise in income and earnings. That company's history on the market is legend by now both within and without the trade.

Speaking of corporate happenings, a most significant event of the year was Seeburg's separation from Commonwealth United and back as an independent (among the moves the newly-independent Seeburg made during 1973 was its 50% acquisition of Segasa games factory of Spain). President Sam Stern also announced the company would begin making slot machines.

EASTERN FLASHES

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL OUR FRIENDS IN THE INDUSTRY EVERYWHERE!

Up in Westchester, the Operators Guild held their annual Christmas party on Dec. 12th at Pastors in White Plains. Highlight of the well-attended affair (over 60) was presentation of commemorative plaque to the association's president Carl Pavesi for his 23 years of outstanding service to the local industry. (Carl's been the only president the group has ever had) . . . The R. H. Belam Company held its Christmas party for employees Friday Dec. 21st. Visitor to the Belam offices Thursday was PMC Electronics president Fred Pliner. . . . A.C.A. Sales vice president Mickie Greenman and wife Mildred into New York this week to visit with their offspring during the holidays. Based in Los Angeles, the Greenman's manage to get back about twice a year and each time is a grand occasion to catch up on family business . . . Morris Nahum of AMICO, wife and two kids off to Florida next week to "relax the brain" as Morris puts it . . . Music ops who dig into new records should dig into a new MEGA disk by Bill Black's Combo entitled "Smokey Part II" b/w "Tequila." That's right it's a remake of the original hit and it's a knockout! Firm figures they've sold over 28,000 to operators alone since the disk was released couple of weeks back. Heavy hitting areas on the tune include Cleveland, Dallas and Philadelphia.

Dick Williams, sales manager of Wurlitzer announced the extension of sales territory for Bilotta Distributing of Newark, New York. Bilotta will be the sole sales and service representative for Wurlitzer in an area of upstate New York which encompasses the major metropolitan areas of Buffalo, Rochester and Syracuse. This vital marketing area is of prime importance to Wurlitzer whose manufacturing facility is located in North Tonawanda, a suburb of Buffalo.

Bilotta has as its principals Pat Bilotta, president; Jim Bilotta, vice president and Jm Bilotta, Jr., sales. Williams anticipates that the familiarity operators have with the Bilotta organization offers an outstanding benefit to the new territorial arrangement. "We look forward to great progress in developing the Western and Central New York State Region. Bilotta Distributing Corporation has an excellent reputation in serving operators. They know their business and they can help people with service and parts as well as providing them with the best equipment," said Williams.

Bilotta Distributing is located at Route 31 East, Newark, New York. Sales offices, service department and warehouse facilities occupy a brand-new building which allows Bilotta convenient availability to customers. It is expected that the Company will establish additional sales offices in Buffalo and Syracuse to servce operators located in these territories. Deliveries of all coin-operated equipment, however, are being made to all areas in the Bilotta territory at the present moment.

We extend to all of our friends in the coin machine industry the very best of holiday wishes and we hope the New Year brings with it much prosperity and happiness for everyone.

MORE EXPANSION AT D. GOTTLIEB & CO.! Since completion of its massive factory complex in suburban Northlake, Illinois about two and a half years ago, D. Gottlieb & Co. has twice expanded its facilities. The most recent expansion move, an east addition to the plant, is already being fully utilized. Alvin Gottlieb was telling us that one of the new sections is actually only 1,000 feet smaller than the entire Kostner Avenue building that once housed the Gottlieb plant! He added that the numerous out of town and foreign visitors who stopped by during the recent MOA convention, were very much impressed with the size and layout of the plant! . . . Gottlieb is presently shipping its current single player "King Pin" and will shortly follow with an add-a-ball version.

AFTER TALKING TO Dick Raymond, president of Arizona Automation in Phoenix, we are convinced that people all over the country are really "getting hooked on 'Champion Soccer' ", the firm's current hot selling game! The new AA plant is maintaining peak production schedules in order to meet the very heavy demand for both the coin-operated unit and the "Club" home model—the latter being especially big in sales during the holiday season! Dick will be exhibiting his line at the NSGA (National Sporting Goods Assn.) show in Chicago this coming February.

MUCHO ACTIVITY AT THE Williams Electronics Inc. plant, with full production schedules on the "QXQ" 4-player, and delivery about to commence on the new shuffle alley called "Royal Hawaiian"! . . . Last Friday night (21) Williams hosted its annual Christmas party for employees at DiLeo's Restaurant—and a jolly good time was had by all!

CHICOIN'S MARKETING MANAGER Chuck Arnold will be spending the holidays in New England—which sounds just great! He and his wife will be visiting with their daughters and their two year old grandson . . . Last week there were four production lines going at the Chicago Dynamic Industries factory—producing shuffles, ball bowlers, the red hot "Twin Skeet" and "T. V. Hockey"!

A REMINDER: MOA members interested in enrolling in the "Paymaster" program of disability income insurance protection may write for information to: Administrator, MOA Paymaster Protection, 330 S. Wells St., Suite 1110, Chicago, Ill. 60606—or phone (312) 922-5253 collect. When announcement of the program was initially made by the MOA office the response was great, according to Fred Granger; but he did mention that the enrollment period is limited—so, this reminder is for those who have not as yet submitted their replies.

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

The California Supreme Court has agreed to review the recent court decision which would again ban flipper games from the City of Los Angeles. This latest development has been greeted as exceptionally good news by all of the local distributors and operators.

Portale Automatic sales has recently received its first carload of new Rock-Ola phonographs, model 454.

Ken Smith at Circle International reports that orders for the new Atari Quadrapong machine indicate that the item may be the hottest t.v. game ever.

Hank Tronick tells us that C. A. Robinsons "Open House" for the Christmas season contributed greatly to the companies holiday sales success. At presstime, the operators were still "coming in like crazy."

Atari sales manager Pat Karns off to Napa Sonoma with the family for the holidays. Pat brings his mom up there every holiday season where they get together with the rest of the Karns bunch. . . . Nat Hockman and Clayton Ballard tell us there's a new address for their U-View Theatre operation. It's 1888 Century Park East here in Los Angeles. The guys figure that 1974 will be THE year for U-View in taverns from coast to coast.

From all of us at the Los Angeles office of Cash Box, may we wish all our coin industry friends a Very Merry Chistmas and a Happy and Posperous New Year in 1974.

MILWAUKEE MENTIONS

To all of you, from all of us at Cash Box—a very Merry Chistmas and a Happy New Year!

LITTLE LP'S ARE IN THE SPOTLIGHT AT RADIO DOCTORS! Rod Hauber, who is very much involved in this particular department at the one-stop, notes that an increasing number of aera operators are showing interest in LLP programming, due in no small measure, he said, to the diversified material available in both the Goldmor and Little LP's Unlimited catalogs. Among the titles currently selling from the Goldmor lineup are: "Benny Goodman & Orchestra Today" (Phase 4), "Chicago Six" (Columbia), Al Green's "Call Me" (Hi), "Fresh" by Sly & The Family Stone (Epic) and "Sentimental Journey" by Boots Randolph (Monument). Current sellers from the Little LP's Unlimited catalog include: "Life & Times" by Jim Croce (ABC), "Cyan" by Three Dog Night (Dunhill), "Sweet Freedom" by Uriah Heep (WB), "Brothers & Sisters" by the Allman Bros. Band (Capricorn), "Ol' Blue Eyes Is Back" by Frank Sinatra (Reprise) and "Do You Wanna Dance" by the Glen Miller Orchestra (ABC).

HEAR TELL THAT MCI's sales and marketing manager JoAn Mason is quite the lady pool player—as proven during the recent COIN conclave in Omaha when she won a big prize and much applause from fellow coin people!

WINTER IS REARING ITS HEAD in several areas throughout the state and operators are preparing themselves for the accompanying transportation problems. However, there are those snowmobile enthusiasts who have been very patiently waiting for the white stuff to accumulate!

MOA Sets November 1, 2, 3 For It's 1974 Convention/Expo

CHICAGO — Dates of the 1974 MOA convention are November 1, 2, and 3, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Executive vice president Fred Granger said the association has acquired additional exhibit space at the Conrad Hilton for next year's Expo, in view of the number of exhibitors from Expo '73 who have requested enlarged accommodations and more booth space in '74. "We have eliminated the north hall and will instead utilize the east and west halls as exhibit areas," Granger said. "This will give us about twice the amount of space we had last year, however, the entire display section will be on the same level."

The historic Expo '73 is still fresh in everyone's mind, Granger noted, as evidenced by the amount of complimentary mail and phone calls received (and still being received) at the local MOA headquarters office. "We expect similar success next year," Granger said, "or, barring any adversities in the nation's economy, an even bigger convention!"

Pointing to the necessity of advance planning, Granger stressed the importance not only of reserving booth space ahead of time but hotel room accommodations as well. It is unfortunate, he said, that some people were unable to get rooms at the Conrad Hilton during Expo '73 and complaints were registered along these lines. "To avoid this problem, we will urge members desiring suites, and individual rooms, to make their reservations well in advance in order to insure accommodations at the hotel."

An evaluation of last year's Expo will be made at the upcoming MOA Board of Directors meeting. The membership will be kept informed of further developments via the association's regularly issued newsletter.
